(b) The volume of business likely to be available to, and the capital structure and earning prospects of, the applicant will be adequate;

(c) The interest of the general public will be served if the certificate of registration is granted to the applicant in respect of the class or classes of insurance business specified in the application; and

(d) The applicant has complied with the provisions of Sees. 2-C, 5, 31A and 32 and has fulfilled all the requirements of this section applicable to him,

The Controller may register the applicant as an insurer and grant him a certificate of registration.

(2-B) Where the Controller refuses registration, he shall record the reasons for such decision and shall furnish a copy thereof to the applicant.

(2-C) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Controller refusing registration may, within thirty days, from the date on which he receives a copy of the decision, appeal to the Central Government.

(2-D) The decision of the Central Government on such appeal shall be final and shall not be questioned before any Court.]

(3) ¹⁵Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2-A), in the case of any insurer having his principal place of business or domicile outside India], the ¹⁶[Controller] shall withhold registration or shall cancel a registration already made, if he is satisfied that in the country in which such insurer has his principal place of business or domicile. Indian nationals are debarred by the law or practice of the country relating to, or applied to insurance from carrying on the business of insurance, or that any requirement imposed on such insurer under the provisions of Sec. 62 is not satisfied.

¹⁷[(4) The ¹⁸[Controller] shall cancel the registration of an insurer either wholly or in so far as it relates to a particular class of insurance business, as the case may be, -

(a) If the insurer fails to comply with the provisions of Sec. 7 or Sec. 98 as to deposits, or

¹⁸[(aa) If the insurer fails, at any time, to comply the provisions of Sec.64 VA as to the excess of the value of his assets over the amount of his liabilities; or]

(b) If the insurer is in liquidation or is adjudged an insolvent, or

- (c) If the business or a class of the business of the insurer has been transferred to any person or has been transferred to or amalgamated with the business of any other insurer, or
- (d) If the whole of the deposit made in respect of ¹⁹[* * *] insurance business has been returned to the insurer under Sec. 9,] ²⁰[or
- (e) If, in the case of an insurer specified in sub-clause (c) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2, the standing contract referred to in that sub-clause is cancelled or is suspended and continues to be suspended for a period of six months, ²³[or
- (ee) If the Central Government so directs under sub- section (4) of Sec. 33] and the ²¹[Controller] may cancel the registration of an insurer.
- ²⁴[(f) If the insurer makes default in complying with, or acts in contravention of any requirement of this Act or of any rule or order made thereunder, or]
- (g) If the ²³[Controller] has reason to be any that any claim upon the insurer arising in India under any policy of insurance remains unpaid for three months after final judgment in regular course of law, or
- ²⁷[(h) If the insurer carries on any business other than insurance business or any prescribed business].]
- (5) When the ²³[Controller] withholds or cancels any registration under sub-section (3) or ²⁷[Cl. (a), ²⁷[Cl. (aa)], Cl. (e), ²⁵[Cl. (ee), Cl. (f), Cl. (g) or Cl. (h) of sub-section (4)], he shall give notice in writing to the insurer of his decision, and the decision shall take effect on such date as he may specify in that behalf in the notice, such date not being less than one month nor more than two months from the date of the receipt of the notice in the ordinary course of transmission.
- ²⁶[(5-A) When the ²³[Controller] cancels any registration under Cl. (b), Cl. (c) or Cl. (d) of sub-section (4) the cancellation shall take effect on the date on which notice of the order of cancellation is served on the insurer.
- (5-B) When a registration is cancelled the insurer shall not, after the cancellation has taken effect, enter into any new contracts of insurance, but all rights and liabilities in respect of contracts of insurance entered into by him before such cancellation takes effect shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5-D), continue as if the cancellation had not taken place.
- (5-C) Where a registration is cancelled under ²⁷[Cl. (a), ²⁸[Cl. (aa)], Cl. (e), Cl. (f), Cl. (g) or Cl. (h) of sub-section (4),] the ²³[Controller] may at his discretion revive the registration, if the insurer within six months from the date on which the cancellation took effect makes the deposits required by Sec. 7 or Sec. 98, ²²[or complies with the provisions of Sec. 64-VA as to the excess of the value of his assets over the amount of his liabilities] ²⁹[or has his standing contract restored or has had an application under sub-section (4) of Sec. 3-A accepted], ³⁰[or satisfies ³¹[Controller] that no claim upon him such as is referred to in Cl. (g) of sub-section (4) remains unpaid ³²[or that; he has
- Complied with any requirement of this Act or of any rule or order made thereunder or that he has ceased to carry on any business other than insurance business or any prescribed business],] as the case may be, and complies with any directions which may be given to him by the ³⁴ [Controller]

(5-D) Where ³³[the registration of an insurance company is cancelled under sub-section (4), the ³⁵[Controller] may,] after expiry of six months from the date on which the cancellation took effect, apply to the Court for an order to wind up the insurance company, or to wind up the affairs of the company in respect of a class of insurance business, unless the registration of the insurance company has been revived under sub-section (5-C) or an application for winding up the company has been already presented to the Court. The Court may proceed as if an application under this sub-section were an application under sub-section (2) of Sec. 53, or sub-section (1) of Sec. 58, as the case may be.].

³⁵ [(7) The ³⁵[Controller] may, on payment of the prescribed fee which shall not exceed twenty-five rupees, issue a duplicate certificate of registration to replace a certificate lost, destroyed or mutilated, or in any other case where he is of opinion that the issue of a duplicate certificate is necessary.]

5. Restriction on name of insurer. –

(1) An insurer shall not be registered by a name identical with that by which an insurer in existence is already registered, or so nearly resembling that name as to be calculated to deceive except when the insurer in existence is in the course of being dissolved, and signifies his consent to the ¹[Controller].

(2) If an insurer, through inadvertence or otherwise, is without such consent as aforesaid registered by a name identical with that by which an insurer already in existence whether previously registered or not is carrying on business or so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive, the first mentioned insurer shall, if called upon to do so by the ¹[Controller] on the application of the second-mentioned insurer, change his name within a time to be fixed by the ¹[Controller]:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any insurer, carrying on business before the 27th day of January, 1937, under the Indian Life Assurance Companies Act, 1912 (6 of 1912):

¹[Provided further that in the application of this section to any insurer who begins to carry on insurance business after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1946 (6 of 1946), the references to an insurer in existence in sub-section (1) and this sub-section shall be construed including references to a provident society (as defined in Part III) in existence, whether or not the society is in course of being dissolved.)

(3) No insurer other than a provident society ²[as defined in Part III], who begins to carry on insurance business after the commencement of this Act, shall adopt as its name and no such insurer carrying on business before the commencement of this Act shall continue after the expiry of six months from the commencement thereof to use as its name any combination of words which includes the word “provident”.

1. Added by Act 6 of 1946, Sec. 6 (w.e.f. 20th March, 1946).

2. Subs. by Act 13 of 1941, Sec. 6, for the words “to which Part III” Applies (w.e.f. 8th April, 1941).

6. Requirements as to capital. -No insurer incorporated after, or who commenced carrying on the business of life insurance in ¹[India], whether solely or in common with any business, after the 26th day of January, 1937, shall be registered unless he has as working capital a net sum of not less than fifty thousand rupees exclusive of the deposit to be made before registration under sub-section (5) of Sec. 7 of this Act, and exclusive in the case of a company of any sums payable as preliminary expenses in the formation of the company.

1. Subs. by Act 62 of 1956, Sec.2 and Schedule for the words “the States” (w.e.f. 1st November 1956).

¹[6-A. Requirements as to capital structure and voting rights and maintenance of registers of beneficial owners of shares. -

(1) No public company limited by shares having its registered office in ²[India] shall carry on life insurance business, unless it satisfies all the following conditions, namely:

(i) That the capital of the company consists only of ordinary shares each of which has a single face value;

(ii) That, except during any period not exceeding one year allowed by the company for payment of calls on shares, the paid-up amount is the same for all shares, whether existing or new:

Provided that the conditions specified in this sub-section shall not apply to a public company which has, before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (47 of 1950), issued any shares other than ordinary shares each of which has single face value or any shares paid-up amount whereof is not the same for all of them for a period of three years from such commencement.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force or in the memorandum or articles of association but subject to the other provisions contained in this section the voting right of every shareholder of any public company as aforesaid shall in all cases be strictly proportionate to the paid-up amount of the shares held by him.

(3) No public company as aforesaid which carries on life insurance business shall, after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (47 of 1950), issue any shares other than ordinary shares of the nature specified in sub-section (1).

(4) A public company as aforesaid which carries on life insurance business -

(a) Shall maintain, in addition to the register of members to be maintained under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913)³ a register of shares in which shall be entered the name, occupation and address of the beneficial owner of each share, and shall incorporate therein any change of beneficial owner declared to it within fourteen days from the receipt of such declaration;

(b) Shall not register any transfer of its shares-

(i) Unless, in addition to compliance being made with the provisions of Sec. 34 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913),³ the transferee furnishes a declaration in the prescribed form as to, whether he proposes to hold the shares for his own benefit or as a nominee, whether jointly or severally, on behalf of others and in the latter case giving the name, occupation and address of the beneficial owner or owners, and the extent of the beneficial interest of each; and

(ii) Where, after the transfer, the total paid-up holding of the Transferee in the shares of the company is likely to exceed five percent of its paid-up capital or where the transferee is a banking or an investment company, is likely to exceed two and a half percent of such paid-up capital, unless the previous sanction of the Central Government has been obtained to the transfer.

(5) Every person who has any interest in any share of a company referred to in sub-section (4) which stands in the name of another person in the register of members of the company, shall, within thirty days from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (47 of 1950), or from the date on which he acquires such interest, whichever is later, make a declaration in the prescribed form (which shall be counter signed by the person in whose name the share is registered) to the company declaring his interest in such share, and notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or in any contract to the contrary a person who fails to make a declaration as aforesaid in respect of any share shall be deemed to have no right or title whatsoever in that share :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the right of a person who has an interest in any such share to establish in a court his right thereto, if the person, in whose name the share is registered, refuses to countersign the declaration as required by this sub-section:

Provided further that where any share, belonging to an individual who has made any such declaration as is referred to in this sub-section, is held by a company in its name in pursuance of any trust or for the purpose of safe custody or collection or realisation of dividend, such individual shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913),⁴ or in the memorandum or articles of association of the company which has issued the share, be deemed to be the holder of the said share for the purpose of exercising any voting rights under this section to the exclusion of any other person.

(6) If the total paid-up holding of any person in the shares of a company referred to in sub-section (1) on the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act 1950 (47 of 1950), exceeds two and a half percent of its paid up capital where that person is a banking company or an investment company, or five percent of its paid-up capital in any other case, he shall not be entitled to any vote as a shareholder of the company in respect of such excess holding of shares.

(7) Where the total paid-up holding of any person in the shares of a company referred to sub-section (1) on the date of the⁵ commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (47 of 1950), exceeds five percent of its paid-up capital where that person is a banking company or an investment company, or ten percent of its paid-up capital in any other case, he shall dispose of the excess holding of shares within three years from such commencement or such further period not exceeding two years as may be allowed to him by the Central Government.

(8) If, after the expiry of three years or of such further period as may be allowed to any person under sub-section (7), the total paid up holding of any such person has not been reduced to the limits specified in that sub- section, any shares in excess of the limits specified in that sub-section shall vest in the Administrator-General of the State in which the registered office of the company concerned is situate and the Administrator-General shall take such steps as may be necessary for taking charge of any property which has so vested in him and shall dispose of the shares and the proceeds thereof in such manner as may be prescribed.

(9) Subject to the other provisions contained in this section, but notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913),⁴ or in the memorandum or articles of association of any such company as is referred to in sub-section (1), no such company shall refuse to register the transfer of any shares where the transfer is for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of sub-sections (7) and (8).

(10) The Central Government may, subject to such restrictions as it may think fit to impose, exempt from the operation of sub-sections (6), (7) and (8) any insurance company, in any case where the total paid-up holding of such insurance company in the shares of any other insurance company exceeds the limits specified in the said sub-section, if the other insurance company is or is to be made a subsidiary company of the insurance company.

⁶[(11) The provisions of this section, except those of sub-sections (7) (8) and (9) shall, on and from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, also apply to insurers carrying on general insurance business subject to the following notifications, namely:

(i) That references in sub-sections (1), (3), (5) and (6) to the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950, shall be construed as reference to the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968; and

(ii) References in sub-section (10) to sub-sections (7) and (8) shall be omitted.]

⁷[Explanation 1.] - For the purposes of this section, the holding of a person in the shares of a company shall be deemed to include-

(i) The total paid-up holding in such shares held by such person in the name of others; and

(ii) If any shares of the company are held-

(a) By a public limited company, of which such person is a member holding more than ten percent of the paid-up capital, or

(b) By a private limited company, of which such person is a member, or

(c) By a company, of which such person is a managing director, manager, managing agent or in which he has a controlling interest, or

(d) By a firm in which such person is a partner, or

(e) By such person jointly with others,

Such part of the total paid-up holding of the company or firm or of the total joint holding in those shares, as is proportionate to the contribution made by such person to the paid-up capital of the company, the paid-up capital of the firm or the joint holding, as the case may be.

“(a) by a company of which such person is a member holding more than ten percent of the paid-up share capital; or”].

6-B. Provision for securing compliance with requirements relating to capital structured. –

(1) For the purpose of enabling any public company carrying on life insurance business to bring its capital structure into conformity with the requirements of Sec. 6-A, an officer appointed in this behalf by the Central Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913) ¹ -

(a) Examine any scheme proposed for the purpose aforesaid by the directors of the company

Provided that-

(i) The scheme has been placed before a meeting of the shareholders for their opinion and has been forwarded to the officer together with the opinion of the shareholders thereon, and

(ii) The scheme does not involve any diminution of the liability of the shareholders in respect of unpaid-up share capital;

(b) Invite objections and suggestions in respect of the scheme so proposed; and

(c) After considering such objections and suggestions to the scheme so proposed, sanction it with such modifications, as he may consider necessary or desirable.

(2) Any shareholder or other person aggrieved by the decision of the officer sanctioning a scheme under sub-section (1) may, within nineteen days of the date of the order sanctioning the scheme, prefer an appeal to the High Court within whose jurisdiction the registered office of the insurer is situate for the purpose of modifying or correcting any such scheme for the purpose specified in sub-section (1).

(3) The decision of the High Court where an appeal has been preferred to it under sub-section (2), or of the officer aforesaid where no such appeal has been preferred, shall be final and binding on all the shareholders and other persons concerned.

²[(4) The provisions of this section shall, on and from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, also apply to insurers carrying on general insurance business.]

1. See now the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956).

2. Sub section (4) inserted by Act 62 of 1968, Sec. 5 (w.e.f. 1st June, 1969).

6-C. Conversion of company limited by shares into company limited guaranteed. –

(1) Where a public company limited by shares carrying on insurance business has passed a special resolution for converting itself into a public company limited by guarantee, it may apply to the Central Government with a scheme for putting the special resolution into effect, including any provision for the alteration of the memorandum or articles of association in so far as it may be necessary for this purpose.

(2) If the Central Government, after giving such notice to any person concerned as it thinks fit, is satisfied-

(a) That the scheme makes suitable provision with respect to the repayment, conversion or liquidation of the paid-up capital of the company,

(b) That the consent of the creditors to the conversion of the company limited by shares into a company limited by guarantee has been obtained, or that suitable provisions have been made for discharging, determining or securing the debts or claims of such creditors, and

(c) That the scheme is otherwise reasonable, it may sanction the scheme and thereupon the scheme shall become binding on the company and on all the persons concerned.

(3) Against the decision of the Central Government, sanctioning a scheme under sub-section (2), any person aggrieved thereby may, within ninety days of the date of the order sanctioning the scheme prefer an appeal to the High Court within whose jurisdiction the registered office of the insurer is situate.

(4) The decision of the High Court where an appeal has been preferred to it under sub-section (3) or of the Central Government where no such appeal has been preferred, shall be final and binding on all the persons concerned.

(5) Where a scheme has been sanctioned under this section, the company shall file with the Registrar of Companies a certified copy of the scheme as sanctioned, and thereupon the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913), ¹relating to companies limited by guarantee shall become applicable to the company.]

1. See now the companies Act, 1956(1 of 1956).

7. Deposits. -

(1) Every insurer not being an insurer specified in sub-clause (c) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2 shall, in respect of the insurance business carried on by him in 1[India] deposit and keep deposited with the Reserve Bank of India in one of the offices in India of the Bank for and on behalf of the Central Government 2[the amount hereafter specified, either in cash or in approved securities estimated at the market value of the securities on the day of deposit, or partly in cash and partly in approved securities so estimated]-

3[(a) Where his total gross premium written direct in India in respect of general insurance business in any calendar year commencing after the 31st day of December, 1967, did not exceed rupees one crore, a sum of rupees ten lakhs,

(b) Where his total gross premium written direct in India in respect of general insurance business during any calendar year referred to in Cl. (a) exceeded rupees one crore, a sum of rupees twenty lakhs:]

4[Provided that, where the business done or to be done is marine insurance only and relates exclusively to country craft or its cargo or both, the amount to

Be deposited under this sub-section shall be 5[one hundred thousand rupees] only:]

6[Provided further that in respect of an insurer not having a share capital and carrying on only such insurance business as in the opinion of the Central Government is not carried oh ordinarily by insurers under separate policies, the Central Government may, by notification under official Gazette, order that the provisions of this sub-section shall apply to such insurer with the modification that instead of sum of rupees twenty lakhs or rupees ten lakhs, as the case may be, the deposit to be made by such insurer shall be such amount, being not less than one hundred and fifty thousand rupees, as may be specified in the said order.]

7(1-A) (i) An insurer, who holds immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, a valid certificate of registration in respect of any class of insurance business and who has deposited and kept deposited a sum which is less than the sum required to be deposited under subsection (1) may make deposit of the sum which is equal to the difference between the sum already deposited and kept deposited and the sum required to be deposited under sub-section (1), in not more than five installments, of which-

(a) The first shall be not less than one-fifth of the said sum and shall be paid before the expiry of one year from such commencement,

(b) The second shall be not less than one-fourth of the balance left after making the deposit under Cl. (a) and shall be paid before the expiry of two years from such commencement,

(c) The third shall be not less than one-third of the balance left after making the deposit under Cls. (a) and (b), and shall be paid before the expiry of three years from such commencement,

(d) The fourth shall be not less than one-half of the residue and shall be paid before the expiry of four years from such commencement, and

(e) The balance shall be paid before the expiry of five years from such commencement.

(ii) An insurer referred to in Cl. (a) of sub-section (1), the total gross premium written direct by whom in India in any calendar year in respect of general insurance business exceeds for the first time rupees one crore, shall make deposit of the sum which is equal to the difference between the sum already deposited and kept deposited by him as at the end of such calendar year, and the sum of rupees twenty lakhs, in not more than five equal annual installments, the first of which shall be made on or before the 31st day of December of the year immediately following the year in which the total gross premium written direct by him in India exceeded rupees one crore, and nothing in Cl. (i) of this sub-section shall apply to such insurer after the end of the calendar year during which the gross premium written direct by him in India exceeded rupees one crore.

(1-B) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of sub-section (1) in the case of a group of insurers operating in India as a group (hereafter in this Act referred to as a “group”) if the total amount of the deposit made by all the insurers in the group is not less than the amount which the group, if considered to be a single insurer, would have been required to deposit under sub-section (1):

Provided that the deposit made by each insurer in the group is not less than that proportion of the total deposit required to be made under this sub-section as the proportion of his share of the risk on each policy issued by the group bears to the total risk on that policy.

Explanation. -For the purposes of this section and Sec. 64-VA, a group shall be deemed to be operating as such in India if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:

- (a) No insurer in the group has commenced carrying on insurance business in India after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment), Act, 1968;
- (b) All the insurers in the group are registered for the same class or classes of insurance business;
- (c) There is an agreement between all the insurers in the group to function as a group in respect of their business in India, and such agreement provides that the proportionate share of each insurer in the total risk on every policy issued by the group shall be such as may be mentioned therein and that such proportion shall be the same for all policies in all the classes of insurance policies issued by the group;
- (d) The agreement referred to in Cl. (c) has been filed with the controller within thirty days from the date of its execution:

Provided that if the Controller is satisfied that any insurer was prevented by sufficient cause from filing such agreement within the specified time, he may, by order, allow the insurer to file such agreement within a period of thirty days from the date of his order;

- (e) Every policy issued by the insurers in the group mentioned, on the face of the policy, the names of all the members of the group and the proportion of the risk for which each member is liable;
- (f) The insurers in the group function with common offices, common officers, not being directors or members of any board of management, and common staff within India;
- (g) All the expenses in India of the insurance business (but excluding expenses solely relating to any board of management, whether set up for the purpose of managing the insurance business or not, are shared by the insurers in the group in the proportion in which the risks are shared by and between them.

(1-C) When a group of insurers ceases to be a group every insurer in that group who continues to carry on any class of insurance business in India shall, unless he has joined another group within a period of six months from the date of cessation of the previous group and has complied with all the provisions of this section, comply with the requirements of sub-section (1) as if he had not been an insurer in any group at any time and he shall pay, within a period of six months from the date of such cessation, in a lump sum, the amount of the installments of deposit which he would have been required to make under subsection (1-A) before the date of such cessation had he not been an insurer in any group at any time, reduced by the amount of deposit, if any, made by him after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968.

(1-D) The Central Government may, at its discretion, extend the time for of deposit required to be made by the insurer making any deposit or installment under the provisions of sub-sections (1), (1-A), (1-B), (1-C), by a period of not more than six months at a time:

Provided that no more than two extensions shall be given in respect of any deposit or installment of deposit required to be made by an insurer.

(1-E) Where a group of insurers is operating in India as a group, such insurers may, notwithstanding anything contained in Sec. 32-A, have common officers and common staff within India].

(2) Where the insurer is an insurer specified in sub-clause (c) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2, he shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this section as to deposits, if in respect of ⁸[* * ] insurance business ⁹[carried on] by him in ¹⁰[India] under a standing contract of the nature referred to in sub-clause (c) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2 a deposit of an amount one and a-half times that specified in subsection (1) ⁸[ * *] has been made in the Reserve Bank of India in one of the offices in India of the Bank for and on behalf of the Central Government in cash or approved securities estimated at the market value of the securities on the day of deposit by or on behalf of the underwriters who are members of the Society of Lloyd's with whom he has his standing contract.

¹¹[(3) Where the deposit to be made by an insurer not carrying on insurance business in India immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, a deposit of rupees ten lakhs shall be made before the application for registration is made, and the provision of Cl. (ii) of sub-section (1-A) shall apply to such insurer after his registration as they apply to an insurer specified in Cl. (a) of sub-section (1).

(4) An insurer shall not be registered for any class of insurance business in addition to the class or classes for which he is already registered until the full deposit required under sub-section (1) has been made.

(5) Where an insurer who intends to become a member of a group, does not carry on all the classes of insurance business carried on by the other insurers in such group, or, where out of the several insurers who desire to form themselves into a group, any insurer does not carry on all the classes of insurance business carried on by the other insurers who desire to form themselves into the group, such insurer may be registered for that class or those classes of insurance business which is or are carried on by the other insurers of the group or the proposed group, as the case may be, and where any application for registration is made by any such insurer, the Controller may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2-A) of Sec. 3 or sub-section (4), register such insurer for one or more additional classes of insurance, if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely :

(a) The Controller is satisfied that registration for the proposed one or more additional classes of insurance business would qualify the insurer become member of a group;

(b) Agreements have been executed by all the insurers in the group or proposed group, as the case may be, and such agreements in the opinion of the Controller, satisfy the requirements of the explanation to sub-section (1-B); and

(c) The insurer has, after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, made deposit of a sum not less than the total of all the installments of deposit which he would have been required to make after such commencement till the date of his becoming a member of the group, had he been a member of the group from such commencement.

(6) The Controller shall cancel the registration made in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (5), if the insurer referred to therein fails to become, within a period of three months from the date of such registration, a member of the group or proposed group, as the case may be, and where such registration has been cancelled, the provisions of this Act shall apply to the insurer as if he had not been registered for the class or classes of insurance business in relation to which his registration has been cancelled.]

(7) Securities already deposited with the Controller of Currency in compliance with the Indian Life Insurance Companies Act, 1912 (6 of 1912), shall be transferred by him to the Reserve Bank of India and shall, to the extent of their market value ¹²[as at the date of the commencement of this Act], be deemed to be deposited under this Act ¹³ [as the installment or as part of this installment to be made under the foregoing provisions of this section before the application for registration is made whether any such application is or is not in fact made] .

(8) A deposit made in cash shall be held by the Reserve Bank of India to the credit of the insurer and shall ¹⁴[except to the extent, if any, to which the cash has been invested in securities under sub-section (9-A)], be returnable to the insurer in cash in any case in which under the provisions of this Act a deposit is to be returned; and any interest accruing due and collected on securities deposited under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be paid to the insurer, subject only to deduction of the normal commission chargeable for the realisation of interest.

¹⁵(9) The insurer may at any time replace any securities deposited by him under this section with the Reserve Bank of India either by cash or by other approved securities or partly by cash and partly by other approved securities provided that such cash, or the value of such other approved securities estimated at the market rates prevailing at the time of replacement, or such cash together with such value, as the case may be, is not less than the value of the securities replaced estimated at the market rates prevailing when they were deposited.

(9-A) The Reserve Bank of India shall, if so requested by the insurer, -

(a) Sell any securities deposited by him with the Bank under this section and hold the cash realised by such sale as deposit, or

(b) Invest in approved securities specified by the insurer the whole or any part of a deposit held by it in cash or the whole or any part of cash received by it on the sale of or on the maturing of securities deposited by the insurer, and hold the securities in which investment is so made as deposit.

¹⁶[And may charge the normal commission on such sale or on such investment].

(9-B) Where sub section (9-A) applies, -

(a) If the cash realised by the sale of or on the maturing of the securities (excluding in the former case the interest accrued) falls short of the market value of the securities at the date on which they were deposited with the Bank, the insurer shall make good the deficiency by a further deposit either in cash or in approved securities estimated at the market value of the securities, on the day on which they are deposited, or partly in cash and partly in approved securities so estimated, within a period of two months from the date on which the securities matured or were sold or where the securities matured or were sold before the 21st day of March, 1940, within a period of four months from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1940 (20 of 1940), and unless he does so the insurer shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the requirements of this section as to deposits; and

(b) If the cash realised by the sale of or on the maturing of the securities (excluding in the former case the interest accrued) exceeds the market value of the securities at the date on which they were deposited with the Bank, the Central Government may, if satisfied that the full amount required to be deposited under sub-section (1) is in deposit, direct the Reserve Bank to return the excess.]

(10) If any part of a deposit made under this section is used in the discharge of any liability of the insurer, the insurer shall deposit such additional sum in cash or approved securities ¹⁷[estimated at the market value of the securities on the day of deposit, or partly in cash and partly in such securities,] as will make up the amount so used. The insurer shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the requirements of sub-section (1), unless the deficiency is supplied within a period of two months from the date when the deposit or any part thereof is so used for discharge of liabilities.

12. Audit. -The balance-sheet, profit and loss account, revenue account and profit and loss appropriation account of every insurer, in the case of an insurer specified in sub-clause (a) (ii) or sub-clause (b) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2 in respect of all insurance business transacted by him, and in the case of any other insurer in respect of the insurance business transacted by him in India, shall, unless they are subject to audit under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913),¹ be audited annually by an auditor, and the auditor shall in the audit of all such accounts have the powers of, exercise the functions vested in, and discharge the duties and be subject to the liabilities and penalties imposed on, auditors of companies by Sec. 145 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913).¹

1. See now the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956).

13. Actuarial report and abstract. -

(1) Every insurer carrying on life insurance business shall, in respect of the life-insurance business transacted by him in India, and also in the case of an insurer specified in sub-clause (a) (ii) or sub-clause (b) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2 in respect of all life insurance business transacted by him, once at least ¹[in every three years] cause an investigation to be made by an actuary into the financial condition of the life insurance business carried on by him, including a valuation of his liabilities in respect thereto and shall cause an abstract of the report of such actuary to be made in accordance with the regulations contained in Part I of the Fourth Schedule and in conformity with the requirements of Part II of that Schedule.

²[Provided that the Controller may, having regard to the circumstances any particular insurer, allow him to have the investigation made as at a date not later than four years from the date as at which the previous investigation was made:

Provided further that for an insurer carrying on life insurance business in ³[India] at the ⁴Commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (47 of 1950), the last date as at which the first investigation after such commencement should be caused to be made by an actuary shall be-

- (a) The 31st day of December, 1950, or the date of expiration of five years from the date as at which the last investigation was made by an actuary before such commencement, whichever is earlier, where the said last investigation was at a date-

- (i) Before the 31st day of December, 1946, but not more than five years before such commencement, or
- (ii) After the 30th day of December, 1946, but before the 31st day of December, 1947, and had disclosed a deficit in the life insurance fund;
- (b) The 31st day of December 1951, where the last investigation by an actuary before such commencement was at a date-
 - (i) After the 30th day of December, 1946, but before the 31st day of December, 1947, and did not disclose a deficit in the life insurance fund; or
 - (ii) After the 30th day of December, 1947, but before the 31st day of December, 1948;
- (c) The 31st day of December, 1952, where the last investigation by an actuary before such commencement was as at any date after the 30th day of December, 1948, but before the 1st day of January, 1950:

Provided also that, in the case of an insurer who has not caused an investigation to be made by an actuary as at any date prior to such commencement, the date of commencement of life insurance business in ⁵[India] shall, for the purpose of the preceding proviso, be deemed to be the date as at which the last investigation was made by an actuary before such commencement and such investigation shall be deemed to have disclosed no deficit in the life insurance fund.]

- (2) The provisions of sub-section (1) regarding the making of an abstract shall apply whenever at any other time an investigation into the financial condition of the insurer is made with a view to the distribution of profits or an investigation is made of which the results are made public.
- (3) There shall be appended to every such abstract as is referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) a certificate signed by the principal officer of the insurer that full and accurate particulars of every policy under which there is a liability either actual or contingent have been furnished to the actuary for the purpose of the investigation.
- (4) There shall be appended to every such abstract a statement in conformity with the requirements of a Part II of the Fifth Schedule and prepared in accordance with the regulations contained in Part I of that Schedule, of the life insurance business in force at the date to which the accounts of the insurer are made up for the purposes of such abstract:

Provided that, if the investigation referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) is made annually by any insurer, the statement need not be appended every year but shall be appended at least once ⁶[in every three years.]

- (5) Where an investigation into the financial conditions of an insurer is made as at a date other than the expiration of the year of account, the accounts for the period since the expiration of the last year of account and the balance sheet as at the date at which the investigation is made shall be prepared and audited in the manner provided by this Act.

⁷[(6) The provisions of this section relating to the life insurance business shall apply also to any such sub-class of insurance business included in the class “Miscellaneous Insurance” as may be prescribed under sub-section (1) of Sec. 10 and the ⁸[Controller] may authorise such modifications and variations of the regulations contained in Part I of the Fourth and Fifth Schedules and of the requirements of Part II of those Schedules as may be necessary to facilitate their application to any such sub-class of insurance business:

Provided that, if the ⁸[Controller] is satisfied that the number and amount of the transactions carried out by an insurer in any such sub-class of insurance business is so small as to render periodic investigation and valuation unnecessary, he may exempt that insurer from the operation of this sub-section in respect of that sub-class of insurance business.]

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an insurer may, subject to the provisions contained in the next succeeding subsections, invest or keep invested any part of his assets otherwise than in an approved investment specified in sub-section (1), if-

(i) After such investment, the total amounts of all such investments of the insurer do not exceed twenty-five percent of his assets, and

(ii) The investment is made or in the case of any investment already made, the continuance of such investment is with the consent of -all the directors, other than the directors appointed under Sec. 34-C, present at a meeting and eligible to vote, special notice of which has been given to all the directors then in India, and all such investments, including investments in which any director is interested, are reported without delay to the Controller with full details of investments and the extent of the director's interest in any such investment :

Provided that the making or the continuance, of such investment is not objected to by any director appointed under Sec. 34-C.

(4) An insurer shall not invest or keep invested any part of his assets in the shares of any one banking company or investment company more than-

CONTENTS

- (a) Ten percent of his assets, or
- (b) Two percent of the subscribed share capital and-debentures of the banking company or investment company concerned, whichever is less,
- (5) An insurer shall not invest or keep invested any part of his assets in the shares or debentures of any one company other than a banking company or investment company more than-

- (a) Ten percent of his assets, or
- (b) Ten percent of the subscribed share capital and debentures of the company, whichever is less,

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall apply to any investment made by an insurer in the shares of any other insurer if such other insurer is a company within the meaning of Sec. 3 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), and carries on insurance or re-insurance business in India.

- (6) An insurer shall not invest or keep invested any part of his assets in the shares or debentures of any private company.
- (7) Where an investment is in partly paid-up shares, the uncalled liability on such shares shall be added to the amount invested for the purpose of computing the percentages referred to in Cl. (a) of sub-section (4) and Cl. (a) of sub-section (5).
- (8) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (4) and (5), where new shares are issued to the existing share-holders by a company, the existing shares of which are covered by Cl. (e) or Cl. (g) or Cl. (h) of sub-section (1) and of which an insurer is already a share-holder, the insurer may subscribe to such new shares:

Provided that the proportion of new shares subscribed by him does not exceed the proportion, which the paid-up amount on the shares held by him immediately before such subscription bears to the total paid-up capital of the company at the time of such subscription.

- (9) If, on an application submitted to the Controller, he has satisfied that special grounds exist warranting such exemption, he may, for such period, to such extent and in relation to such particular investments and subject to such conditions as may be specified by him in this behalf, exempt an insurer from all or any of the provisions of sub-sections (4), (5) and (8).
- (10) An insurer shall not keep more than ten percent of his assets in fixed deposit or current deposit, or partly in fixed deposit and partly in current deposit, with any one banking company or with any co-operative society registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912), or under any other law for the time being in force and doing banking business:

Provided that in applying this sub-section to the amount in deposit with a banking company on any day, all the premiums credited-during the preceding sixty days, to the account of the insurer with such banking company and the amounts deposited, during the preceding thirty days, by such insurer with that banking company for payment of claims or out of re-insurance recoveries, shall be excluded.

- (11) All assets shall (except for a part thereof not exceeding one-tenth of the total assets in value which may, subject to such conditions and restriction as may be prescribed, be offered as security for any loan taken for purposes of any investment or for payment of claims, or which may be kept as security deposit with the banks for acceptance of policies) be held free of any encumbrance, charge, hypothecation or lien .

(12) If at any time the Controller considers any one or more of the investments constituting an insurer's assets to be unsuitable or undesirable, he may, after giving the insurer an opportunity of being heard, direct the insurer to realise the investment or investments, and the insurer shall comply with the direction within such time as may be specified in this behalf by the Controller.

(13) Every insurer in existence at the commencement of the insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, whose investments or any part thereof at such commencement do or does not fulfill the requirements of this section, shall, ment submit to the Controller a report specifying all such investments, and, if the Controller is satisfied that it will not be in the interest of the insurer or any class of insurers generally to realise any such investments, he may, by order direct that the provisions of this section, other than the provisions contained in sub-section (12), shall not apply in relation to any such investments or to any class of investments generally for such period or periods as may be specified in the order.

(14) Without prejudice to the powers conferred on the Controller by sub-section (12), nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require any insurer to realise any investment made in conformity with the provisions of sub-section (1) after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, which, after the making thereof, has ceased to be an approved investment within the meaning of this section.

(15) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect in any way the manner in which any moneys relating to the provident fund of any employee or to any security taken from any employee or other moneys of a like nature are required to be held by or under any Central, Provincial or State Act.

(16) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires, "assets" means-

(a) In the case of an insurer carrying on life insurance business in India, all his assets required to be shown under the column "Other Classes of Business" in the balance-sheet in Form A, in Part II of the First Schedule, but excluding any items against the head "Other Accounts (to be specified)";

(b) In the case of an insurer specified in sub-clause (a) (ii) or sub-clause (b) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2, who is not carrying on life insurance business in India, all his assets required to be shown in the balance-sheet in Form A in Part II of the First Schedule but excluding any items against the head "Other Accounts (to be specified)"; and

(c) In the case of any other insurer, the assets required to be shown in the statement in Form AA, in Part 11 of the First Schedule, but excluding office furniture, but does not include any assets specifically held against any fund or portion thereof in respect of which the Controller is satisfied that such funds or portion thereof, as the case may be, is regulated by the law of any country outside India or in respect of which the Controller is satisfied that it would not be in the interest of the insurer to apply the provisions of this section.]

33-A. Power to appoint staff. -The Central Government or the Controller may appoint such staff, and at such places as it or he may consider necessary, for the scrutiny of the returns, statements and information furnished by insurers under this Act and generally to ensure the efficient performance of the functions of the Controller under this Act.

Power to issue Directions

- 34. Power of the Controller to issue directions. -

- (1) Where the Controller is satisfied that-

- (a) In the public interest; or
- (b) To prevent the affairs of any insurer being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the policy-holders or in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the insurer; or
- (c) Generally to secure the proper management of any insurer, it is necessary to issue directions to insurers generally or to any insurer in particular, he may, from time to time, issue such directions as he deems fit, and the insurers or the insurer, as the case may be, shall be bound to comply with such directions:

Provided that no such directions shall be issued to any insurer in particular unless such insurer has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

- (2) The Controller may, on representation made to him or on his own motion, modify or cancel any direction issued under sub-section (1), and in modifying or canceling any directions, may impose such conditions as he thinks fit, subject to which the modification or cancellation shall have effect.

Control over Management

34-A. Amendment of provisions relating to appointments of managing directors, etc. to be subject to previous approval of the Controller. –

- (1) In the case of an insurer, -
 - (a) No amendment made, after the commencement of the Insurance Amendment Act, 1968, of any provision relating to the appointment, re-appointment, termination of appointment or remuneration of a managing or whole-time director, or of a manager or a chief executive officer, by whatever name called, whether that provision be contained in the insurers memorandum or articles of associations, or in any agreement entered into by him, or in any resolution passed by the insurer in general meeting or by his Board of Directors shall have effect unless approved by the Controller ;
 - (b) No appointment, re-appointment or termination of appointment made after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, of a managing or whole-time director, or a manager or a chief executive officer, by whatever name called, shall have effect unless such appointment, reappointment or termination of appointment is made with the previous approval of the Controller.

Explanation. -For the purposes of this sub-section, any provision conferring any benefit or providing any amenity or perquisite, in whatever form, whether during or after the termination of the term of office of the manager or the chief executive officer, by whatever name called or a managing or whole-time director, shall be deemed to be a provision relating to his remuneration.

- (2) Nothing contained in Secs. 268 and 269, the proviso to sub-section (3) of Sec. 309, secs. 310 and 311, the proviso to Sec. 387 and sec. 388 (in so far as Sec. 388 makes the provisions of Secs. 310 and 311 apply in relation to the manager of a company) of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), shall apply to any matter in respect of which the approval of the Controller has to be obtained under subsection (1).

(3) No act done by a person as a managing or whole-time director or a director not liable to retire by rotation or a manager or a chief executive officer, by whatever name called, shall be deemed to be invalid on the ground that it is subsequently discovered that his appointment or re-appointment had not taken effect by reason of any of the provisions of this Act; but nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as rendering valid any act done by such person after his appointment or re-appointment has been shown to the insurer not to have had effect.

34-B. Power of Controller to remove managerial persons from office. –

(1) Where the Controller is satisfied that in the public interest or for preventing the affairs of an insurer being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the policy-holders or for securing the proper management of any insurer it is necessary so to do, he may, for reasons to be, recorded in writing, by order, remove from office, with effect from such date as may be specified in the order, any director or the chief executive officer, by whatever name called, of the insurer.

(2) No order under sub-section (1) shall be made unless the director or chief executive officer concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of making a representation to the Controller against the proposed order:

Provided that it, in the opinion of the Controller, any delay would be detrimental to the interests of the insurer or his policy-holders, he may, at the time of giving the opportunity aforesaid or at any time thereafter, by order direct that, pending the consideration of the representation aforesaid, if any, the director or, as the case may be, chief executive officer, shall not, with effect from the date of such order, -

(a) Act as such director or chief executive officer of the insurer;

(b) In any way, whether directly, indirectly” be concerned with, or take part in the management of the insurer.

(3) Where any order is made in respect of a director or chief executive officer of an insurer under sub-section (1), he shall cease to be a director or-as the case may be, chief executive officer of the insurer and shall not, in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be concerned with, or take part in, the management of any insurer for such period not exceeding five years as may be specified in the order.

(4) If any person in respect of whom an order is made by the Controller under sub-section (1) or under the proviso to sub-section (2) contravenes the provisions of this section, he shall be punishable with fine, which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for each day during which such contravention continues.

(5) Where an order under sub-section (1) has been made, the Controller may, by order in writing, appoint a suitable person in place of the director or chief executive officer who has been removed from his office under that subsection, with effect from such date as may be specified in the order.

(6) Any person appointed as director or chief executive officer under this section shall, -

(a) Hold office during the pleasure of the Controller and subject thereto for a period not exceeding three years or such further periods not exceeding three years at a time as the Controller may specify

(b) Not incur any obligation or liability by reason only of his being a director or chief executive officer or for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or in any contract, memorandum or articles of association, on the removal of a person from office under this section, that person shall not be entitled to claim any compensation for the loss or termination of office.

34-C. Power of Controller to appoint additional directors. –

(1) If the Controller is of opinion that in the public interest or in the interests of an insurer or his policy-holders it is necessary so to do, he may, from time to time, by order in writing, appoint, with effect from such date as may be specified in the order, one or more persons to hold office as additional directors of the insurer:

Provided that the number of additional directors so appointed shall not, at any time, exceed five or one-third of the maximum strength fixed for the Board by the articles of association of the insurer, whichever is less.

(2) Any person appointed as additional director in pursuance of this section, -

(a) Shall hold office during the pleasure of the Controller, and subject thereto for a period not exceeding three years or such further periods not exceeding three years at a time as the Controller may specify;

(b) Shall not incur any obligation or liability by reason only of his being a director or for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto; and

(c) Shall not be required to hold qualification shares of the insurer.

(3) For the purpose of reckoning any preparation of the total number of directors of the insurer, any additional director appointed under this section shall not be taken into account.

34-D. Sections 34-B and 34-C to override other laws. –Any appointment or removal of a director or chief executive officer in pursuance of Sec. 34-B or Sec. 34-C shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), or any other law for the time being in force or in any contract or any other instrument.

34-E. Further powers of Controller. -The Controller may, -

(a) Caution or prohibit insurers generally or any insurer in particular against entering into any particular transaction or class of transactions, and generally give advice to any insurer;

(b) At any time, if he is satisfied that in the public interest or in the interests of the insurer or for preventing the affairs insurer being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the insurer or his policy-holders, it is necessary so to do, by order in writing and on such ten-ns and conditions as may be specified therein, -

- (i) Require the insurer to call a meeting of his directors for the purpose of considering any matter relating to or arising out of the affairs of the insurer;
- (ii) Depute one or more of his officers to watch the proceedings at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the insurer or of any committee or of any other body constituted by it; require the insurer to give an opportunity to the officers so deputed to be heard at such meetings and also require such officers to send a report of such proceedings to the Controller
- (iii) Require the Board of Directors of the insurer or any committee or any other body constituted by it to give in writing to any officer specified by the Controller in this behalf at his usual address all notices of, and other communications relating to, any meeting of the Board, committee or other body constituted by it;
- (iv) Appoint one or more of his officers to observe the manner in which the affairs of the insurer or of his offices or branches are being conducted and make a report thereon;
- (v) Require the insurer to make, within such time as may be specified in the order, such changes in the management as the Controller may consider necessary.

34-F. Power of Controller to Issue directions regarding re-insurance treaties, etc. –

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Sec. 34, the Controller may, if he is of opinion that the terms or conditions of any re-insurance treaty or other re-insurance contract entered into by an insurer are not favorable to the insurer or are detrimental to the public interest, he may, by order, require, the insurer to make, at the time when the renewal of such treaty or contract becomes next due, such modifications in the terms and conditions of such treaty or contract as he may specify in the order or not to renew such treaty or contract, and, if the insurer fails to comply with such order, he shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act.
- (2) The Controller, may, if he has reason to believe that an insurer is entering into or is likely to enter into re-insurance treaties or other re-insurance contracts which are not favorable to the insurer or are detrimental to the public interest, he may, by order, direct that the insurer shall not enter into such re-insurance treaty or other re-insurance contract unless a copy of such treaty or contract has been furnished to him in advance and the terms and conditions thereof have been approved by him and if the insurer fails to comply with such order he shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the requirements of this Act.

34-G. Power of Controller to order closure of foreign branches. -Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Sec. 34 the Controller may, if he has reason to believe that the working of any branch outside India of an insurer specified in sub-clause (b) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2, is generally resulting in a loss or that the affairs of that branch are being conducted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the policy-holders or the public interest, he may, after giving an opportunity to the insurer to be heard, direct that the insurer shall cease, within such period not being less than one year, as may be specified in the order, to carry on insurance business in the country in which such branch is situated and if the insurer fails to comply with such order he shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act.

34-H. Search and seizure. –

- (1) Where the Controller, in consequence of information in his possession, has reason to believe that-

- (a) Any person who has been required under sub-section (2) of Sec. 33 to produce, or cause to be produced, any books, accounts or other documents in his custody or power has omitted or failed to produce, or cause to be produced, such books, accounts or other documents, or
- (b) Any person to whom a requisition to produce any books, accounts or other documents as aforesaid has been or might be issued will not, Or would not, produce or cause to be produced, any books, accounts or other documents which will be useful for, or relevant to an investigation under sub-section (1) of Sec. 33 or an inspection under section (1-A) of that section, or

(1) If the Controller is satisfied that-

(i) In the public interest; or

(ii) In the interests of the policy-holders; or

- (iii) In order to secure the proper management of an insurer; or
- (iv) In the interests of insurance business of the country as a whole it is necessary so to do, he may prepare a scheme for the amalgamation of that insurer with any other insurer (hereinafter referred to in this section as the transferee-insurer):

Provided that no such scheme shall be prepared unless the other insurer has given his written consent to the proposal for such amalgamation.

- (2) The scheme aforesaid may contain provisions for all or any of the following matters, namely:
 - (a) The constitution, name and registered office, the capital, assets, powers, rights, interests, authorities and privileges, and the liabilities, duties and obligations of the transferee insurer;
 - (b) The transfer to the transferee insurer the business, properties, assets and liabilities of the insurer on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the scheme;
 - (c) Any change in the Board of Directors, or the appointment of a new Board of directors of the transferee-insurer and the authority by whom, the manner in which, and the other terms and conditions on which such change or appointment shall be made, and in the case of appointment of a new Board of Director or of any director, the period for which such appointment shall be made;
 - (d) The alteration of the memorandum and articles of association of the transferee insurer for the purpose of altering the capital thereof or for such other purposes as may be necessary to give effect to the amalgamation;
 - (e) Subject to the provisions of the scheme, the continuation by or against the transferee insurer, of any actions or proceedings pending against the insurer;
 - (f) The reduction of the interest or rights which the shareholders, policy holders and other creditors have in or against the insurer before the amalgamation to such extent as the Controller considers necessary in the public interest or in the interests of the shareholders, policy-holders and other creditors or for the maintenance of the business of the insurer;
 - (g) The payment in cash or otherwise to policy-holders and other creditors in full satisfaction of their claim,-
 - (i) In respect of their interest or rights in or against the insurer before the amalgamation; or
 - (ii) Where their interest or rights aforesaid in or against the insurer has or have been reduced under Cl. (f), in respect of such interest or rights as so reduced;
 - (h) The allotment to the shareholders of the insurer for shares held by them therein before the amalgamation [whether their interest in such shares has been reduced under Cl. (f) or not] of shares in the transferee insurer and where any shareholders claim payment in cash and not allotment of shares, or where it is not possible to allot shares to any shareholders the payment in cash to those shareholders in full satisfaction of their claim-

- (i) In respect of their interest in shares in the insurer before the amalgamation; or
- (ii) Where such interest has been reduced under Cl. (f) in respect of their interest in shares as so reduced;

(i) The continuance of their services of all the employees of the insurer (excepting such of them as not being workmen within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), are specifically mentioned in the scheme) in the transferee insurer at the same remuneration and on the same terms and conditions of service, which they were getting or, as the case may be, which they were being governed, immediately before the date of the amalgamation:

Provided that the scheme shall contain a provision that the transferee insurer shall pay or grant not later than the expiry of the period of three years, from the date of the amalgamation, to the said employees the same remuneration and the same terms and conditions of service as are applicable to the other employees of corresponding rank on status of the transferee “insurer subject to the qualifications and experience of the said employees being the same as or equivalent to those of such other employees of the transferee insurer :

Provided further that if in any case any doubt or difference arises as to whether the qualification and experience of any of the said employees are the same as or are equivalent to the qualifications and experience of the other employees of corresponding rank or status of the transferee insurer, the doubt or difference shall be referred to the Controller whose decision thereon shall be final;

(j) Notwithstanding anything contained in Cl. (i), where any of the employees of the insurer not being workmen within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), are specifically mentioned in the scheme under Cl. (i) or where any employees of the insurer have by notice in writing given to the insurer or, as the case may be, the transferee-insurer at any time before the expiry of one month next following the date on which the scheme is sanctioned by the Central Government, intimated their intention of not becoming employees of the transferee insurer, the payment to such employees of compensation, if any, to which they are entitled under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, and such pension, gratuity, provident fund, or other retirement benefits ordinarily admissible to them under the rules or authorisations of the insurer immediately before the date of the amalgamation ;

(k) Any other terms and conditions for the amalgamation of the insurer;

(l) Such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as are necessary to secure that the amalgamation shall be fully and effectively carried out.

(3) (a) A copy of the scheme prepared by the Controller shall be sent in draft to the insurer and also to the transferee insurer and any other insurer concerned in the amalgamation, for suggestions and objections, if any, within such period as the Controller may specify for this purpose.

(b) The Controller may make such modifications, if any, in the draft scheme as he may consider necessary in the light of suggestions and objections received from the insurer and also from the transferee-insurer, and any other insurer concerned in the amalgamation and from any shareholder, policyholder or other creditor of each of those insurers and the transferee-insurer.

(4) The scheme shall thereafter be placed before the Central Government for its sanction and the Central Government may sanction the scheme without any modification or with such modifications, as it may consider necessary; and the scheme as sanctioned by the Central Government shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may specify in this behalf:

Provided that different dates may be specified for different provisions of the scheme.

(5) The sanction accorded by the Central Government under sub-section (4) shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this section relating to amalgamation have been complied with and a copy of the sanctioned scheme certified in writing by an officer of the Central Government to be a true copy thereof, shall, in all legal proceedings (whether in appeal or otherwise) be admitted as evidence to the same extent as the original scheme.

(6) The Controller may, in like manner, add to, amend or vary any scheme made under this section.

(7) On and from the date of the coming into operation of the scheme or any provision thereof; the scheme or such provision shall be binding on the insurer or, as the case may be, on the transferee-insurer and any other insurer concerned in the amalgamation and also on all the shareholders, policy-holders and other creditors and employees of each of those insurers and of the transferee insurer, and on any other person having any right or liability in relation to any of those insurers or the transferee-insurer.

(8) On and from such date as may be specified by the Central Government in this behalf, their properties and assets of the insurer shall, by virtue of and to the extent provided in the scheme, stand transferred to, and vest in, and the liabilities of the insurer shall, by virtue of and to the extent provided in the scheme, stand transferred to and become the liabilities of, the transferee insurer.

(9) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the scheme the Central Government may by order do anything not inconsistent with such provisions, which appears to it necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

(10) Copies of every scheme made under this section and of every order made under sub-section (9) shall be laid before each House of Parliament, as soon as may be, after the scheme has been sanctioned by the Central Government or, as the case may be, the order has been made.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the amalgamation with an insurer by a single scheme of several insurers.

(12) The provisions of this section and of any scheme made under it shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other provisions of this Act or in any other law or any agreement, award or other instrument for the time being in force.

(13) The provisions of Sec. 37 shall not apply to an amalgamation given effect to under provisions of this section.]

1. Ins. by Act 62 of 1968, Sec. 17 (w.e.f. 1st June, 1969).

Assignment or Transfer of Policies and Nominations

38. Assignment and transfer of insurance policies. -

(1) A transfer or assignment of a policy of life insurance, whether with or without consideration, may be made only by an endorsement upon the policy itself or by a separate instrument, signed in either case by the transferor or by the assign or his duly authorised, agent and attested by at least one witness, specifically setting forth the fact of transfer or assignment.

(2) The transfer or assignment shall be complete and effectual upon the execution of such endorsement or instrument duly attested but ¹[except where the transfer or assignment is in favour of the insurer] shall not be operative as against an insurer and shall not confer upon the transferee or assignee, or his legal representative, any right to sue for the amount of such policy or the moneys secured thereby until a notice in writing of the transfer or assignment ¹²[and] either the said endorsement or instrument itself or a copy thereof certified to be correct by both transferor and transferee or their duly authorised agents] ³[have been delivered] to the insurer ⁴[* * * *]

¹[Provided that where the insurer maintains one or more places of business in ⁵[India], such notice shall be delivered only at the place in ⁵[India] mentioned in the policy for the purpose or at his principal place of business in ⁵[India.]

(3) The date on which the notice referred to in sub-section (2) is delivered to the insurer shall regulate the priority of all claims under a transfer or assignment as between persons interested in the policy; and where there is more than one instrument of transfer or assignment, the priority of the claims under such instruments shall be governed by the order in which the notices referred to in sub-section (2) are delivered.

(4) Upon the receipt of the notice referred to in sub-section (2), the insurer shall record the fact of such transfer or assignment together with the date thereof and the name of the transferee or the assignee and shall, on the request of the person by whom the notice was given, or of the transferee or assignee, on payment of a fee not exceeding one rupee, grant a written acknowledgment of the receipt of such notice; and any such acknowledgment shall be conclusive evidence against the insurer that he has duly received the notice to which such acknowledgment relates.

(5) ⁶[Subject to the terms and conditions of the transfer or assignment, the insurer shall, from the date of the receipt of the notice referred to in sub-section (2),] recognize the transferee or assignee named in the notice as the only person entitled to benefit under the policy, and such person shall subject to all liabilities and equities to which the transferor or assignor was subject at the date of the transfer or assignment and may institute any proceedings in relation to the policy without obtaining the consent of the transferor or assignor or making him a party to such proceedings.

⁷[(6) Any rights and remedies of an assignee or transferee of a policy of life insurance under an assignment or transfer effected prior to the commencement of this Act shall not be affected by the provisions of this section.]

(7) Notwithstanding any law or custom having the force of law to the contrary, and assignment in favour of a person made with the condition that it shall be inoperative or that the interest shall pass if some other person on the happening of a specified event during the ⁸[lifetime of the person whose life is insured], and an assignment in favour of the survivor or survivors of a number of persons shall be valid.

39. Nomination by policyholder. -

(1) The holder of a policy of life insurance ¹ [on his own life, ²[* * *]] may, when affecting the policy or at any time before the policy matures for payment, nominate the person or persons to whom the money secured by the policy shall be paid in the event of his death

³[Provided that, where any nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the policy-holder to appoint in the prescribed manner any person to receive the money secured by the policy in the event of his death during the minority of the nominee.]

(2) Any such nomination in order to be effectual shall, unless it is incorporated in the text of the policy itself, be made by an endorsement on the policy communicated to the insurer and registered by him in the records relating to the policy and any such nomination may at any time before the policy matures for payment be cancelled or changed by an endorsement or a further endorsement or a will, as the case may be, ⁴[but unless notice in writing of any such cancellation or change has been delivered to the insurer, the “insurer shall not be liable for any payment under the policy made bona fide by him to a nominee mentioned in the text of the policy or registered in records of the insurer.”]

⁵[(3) The insurer shall furnish to the policy-holder a written acknowledgment of having registered a nomination or a cancellation or change thereof, and may charge a fee not exceeding one rupee for registering such cancellation or change.]

(4) A transfer or assignment of-a policy made in accordance with Sec. 38 shall automatically cancel a nomination:

⁶[Provided that the assignment of a policy to the insurer who bears the risk on the policy at the time of the assignment, in consideration of a loan granted by that insurer on the security of the policy within its surrender value, or its reassignment on repayment of the loan shall not cancel a nomination, but shall affect the rights of the nominee only to the extent of the insurer’s interest in the policy.]

(5) Where the policy matures for payment during the ⁷[lifetime of the person whose life is insured] or where the nominee or, if there are more nominees than one, all the nominees die before the policy matures for payment, the amount secured by the policy shall be payable to the policy-holder or his heirs or legal representatives or the holder of a succession certificate, as the case may be.

(6) Where the nominee or, if there are more nominees than one a nominee or nominees survive the ⁸[person whose life is insured], the amount secured by the policy shall be survivor or survivors.

(7) The provision of this section shall not apply to any policy of life insurance to which Sec 6 of the Married Women’s Property Act, 1874 (III of 1874), applies ⁹[or has at any time applied:

Provided that where a nomination made whether before or after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1946 (VII of 1946), in favour of the wife of the person who has insured his life or of his wife and children by any of them is expressed, whether or not on the face of the policy as being made under this section, the said Sec. 6 shall be deemed not to apply or not to have applied to the policy.)

1[40-B. Limitation of expenses of management in life insurance business. –

(1) Every insurer transacting life insurance business in India shall furnish to the Controller, within such time as may be prescribed, statements in the prescribed form certified by an actuary on the basis of premium currently used by him in regard to new business in respect of mortality, rate of interest, expenses and bonus loading.

(2) After the 31st day of December, 1950, no insurer shall, in respect of life insurance business transacted by him in India, spend as expenses of management in any calendar year an amount in excess of the prescribed limits and in prescribing any such limits regard shall be had to the size and age of the insurer and the provision generally made for expenses of management in the premium rates of insurers:

Provided that where an insurer has spent as such expenses in any year an amount in excess of the amount permissible under this sub-section, he shall not be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this section, if the excess amount so spent is within such limits as may be fixed in respect of the year by the Controller after consultation with the Executive Committee of the Life Insurance Council constituted under Sec. 64-F, by which the actual expenses incurred may exceed the expenses permissible under this subsection.

(3) In respect of any statement mentioned in sub-section (1), the Controller may require that it shall be submitted to another actuary, appointed by the insurer for the purpose and approved by the Controller, for certification by him, whether with or without modifications.

(4) Every insurer transacting life insurance business in India shall incorporate in the revenue account-

(a) A certificate signed by the chairman and two directors and by the principal officer of the insurer, and an auditors certificate, certifying that all expenses of management in respect of life insurance business transacted by the insurer in India have been fully debited in the revenue account as expenses, and

(b) If the insurer in carrying on any other class of insurance business in addition to life insurance business an auditor's certificate certifying that all charges incurred in respect of his life insurance business and in respect of his business other than life insurance business have been fully debited in the respective revenue accounts.

Explanation. -In this section-

(a) "Calendar year" or "year" means, in relation to an insurer who is required to furnish returns in accordance with sub-section (2) of Sec. 16, the period covered by the revenue account furnished by such insurer under Cl.

(b) Of that sub-section (b) "expenses of management" means all charges wherever incurred whether directly or indirectly, and includes-

(i) Commission payments of all kinds,

(ii) Any amount of expenses capitalized,

(iii) In the case of an insurer having his principal place of business outside India, a proper share of head office expenses which shall not be less than such percentage as may be prescribed of the total premiums (less re-insurance) received during the year in respect of life insurance business transacted by him in India, but does not include in the case of an insurer having his principal place of business in India any share of head office expenses in respect of life insurance business transacted by him outside India.

1. Sections 40-B and 40-C, ins. by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 31 (w.e.f. 1st September, 1950).

40-C. Limitation of expenses of management in general insurance business. –

(1) After the 31st day of December, 1949, no insurer shall, in respect of any class of general insurance business transacted by him in India, spend in any calendar year as expenses of management including commission or remuneration for procuring business an amount in excess of the prescribed limits and in prescribing any such limits regard shall be had to the size and age of the insurer:

Provided that where an insurer has spend as such expenses in any year an amount in excess of the amount permissible under this sub-section, he shall not be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this section, if the excess amount so spent is within such limits as may be fixed in respect of the year by the Controller after consultation with, the Executive Committee of the General Insurance Council constituted under Sec. 64-F, by which the actual expenses incurred may exceed the expenses permissible under this subsection.

(2) Every insurer as aforesaid shall incorporate in the revenue account a certificate signed by the chairman and two directors and by the principal officer of the insurer, and by an auditor certifying that all expenses of management wherever incurred, whether directly or indirectly, in respect of the business referred to in this section have been fully debited in the revenue account as expenses.

Explanation. -In this section, -

(a) “Calendar year” shall have the meaning assigned to it in Sec. 40-B;

(b) “Expenses of management” means all charges, wherever incurred whether directly or indirectly, including commission payments of all kinds and, in the case of an insurer having his principal place of business outside India, a proper share of head office expenses, which shall not be less than such percentage as may be prescribed, of his gross premium income (that is to say, the premium income without taking into account premiums or reinsurance ceded or accepted) written direct in India during the year, ¹[but in computing the expenses of management in India the following, and only the following expenses may be excluded, namely-

(i) In the case of an insurer having his principal place of business in India, a share of head office expenses in respect of general insurance business transacted by -him outside India not exceeding such percentage of his gross direct premium written outside India as may be prescribed;

¹[42-A. Registration of principal agents, chief agents and special agents. -The Controller or an officer authorised by him in this behalf shall, in the prescribed manner and on payment of the prescribed fee, which shall not be more than twenty-five rupees for a principal agent or a chief agent and ten rupees for a special agent, register any person who makes an application to him in the prescribed manner if, -

(a) In the case of an individual, he does not suffer from any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (4) of Sec. 42, or

(b) In the case of a company or firm, any of its directors or partners does not suffer from any of the said disqualifications, and a certificate to Act as a principal agent, chief agent or special agent, as the case may be, for the purpose of procuring insurance business shall be issued to him.

(2) A certificate issued under this section shall entitle the holder thereof to act as a principal agent, chief agent or special agent, as the case may be, for any insurer.

(3) A certificate issued under this section shall remain in force for a period of twelve months only from the date of issue, but shall, on application made on this behalf, be renewed from year to year on production of a certificate from the insurer concerned that the provisions of Cls. (2) and (3) of Part A of the Sixth Schedule in the case of a principal agent, the provisions of Cls. (2) and (4) of Part B of the said Schedule in the case of a chief agent, and the provisions of Cls. (2) and (3) of Part C of the said Schedule in the case of a special agent, have been complied with, and on payment of the prescribed fee, which shall not be more than twenty-five rupees, in the case of a principal agent or a chief agent, and ten rupees in the case of a special agent, and an additional fee of the prescribed amount not exceeding five rupees by way of penalty, in cases where the application for renewal of the certificate does not reach the issuing authority before the date on which the certificate ceases to remain in force:

Provided that, where the applicant is an individual, he does not suffer from any of the disqualifications mentioned in Cls. (b) to (d) of sub-section (4) of Sec. 42 and where the applicant is a company or a firm, any of its directors or partners does not suffer from any of the said disqualifications.

(4) Where it is found that the principal agent, chief agent or special agent being an individual is, or being a company or firm contains a director or partner who is suffering from any of the disqualifications mentioned in subsection (4) of Sec. 42, without prejudice to any other penalty to which he may be liable, the Controller shall, and where a principal agent, chief agent or special agent has contravened any of the provisions of this Act may cancel the certificate issued under this section to such principal agent, chief agent or special agent.

(5) The authority, which issued any certificate under this section, may issue a duplicate certificate to replace a certificate lost, destroyed or mutilated on payment of the prescribed fee, which shall not be more than two rupees.

(6) Any person who acts as a principal agent, chief agent or special agent, without holding a certificate issued under this section to act as such, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and any insurer or any person acting on behalf of an insurer, who appoints as a principal agent, chief agent or special agent any person not entitled to act as such or transacts any insurance business in India through any such person, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(7) Where the person contravening sub-section (6) is a company or a firm, then, without prejudice to any other proceedings which may be taken against the company or firm, every director, manager, secretary or any other officer of the company, and every partner of the firm who is knowingly a party to such contravention shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(8) The provisions of sub-sections (6) and (7) shall not take effect until the expiry of six months from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950).

1. Sections 42-A, 42-B and 42-C ins. by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 33 (w.e.f. 1st September, 1950).

42-B. Regulation of employment of principal agents. –

(1) No insurer shall, after the expiration of seven years from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), appoint, or transact any insurance business in India, through a principal agent.

(2) Every contract between an insurer and a principal agent shall be in writing and the terms contained in Part A of the Sixth Schedule shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and form part of, every such contract.

(3) No insurer shall, after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), appoint any person as a principal agent except in a presidency-town unless the appointment is by way of renewal of any contract subsisting at such commencement.

(4) Within sixty days of the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), every principal agent shall file with the insurer concerned a full list of insurance agents employed by him indicating the terms of the contract between the principal agent and each of such insurance agents, and, if any principal agent fails to file such a list within the period specified, any commission payable to such principal agent on premiums received from the date of expiry of the said period of sixty days until the date of the filing of the said list shall, notwithstanding anything in any contract to the contrary, cease to be so payable.

(5) A certified copy of every contract as is referred to in sub-section (2) shall be furnished by the insurer to the Controller within thirty days of his entering into such contract, and intimation of any change in any such contract shall be furnished by the insurer with full particulars thereof to the Controller within thirty days of the making of any such change.

(6) If the commission due to any insurance agent in respect of any general insurance business procured by such agent is not paid by the principal agent for any reason, the insurer may pay the insurance agent the commission so due and recover the amount so paid from the principal agent concerned.

(7) Every contract as is referred to in sub-section (2), subsisting at the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), shall, with respect to terms regarding remuneration, be deemed to have been so altered as to be in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4) of Sec. 40-A. (8) If any dispute arises as to whether a person is or was a principal agent the matter shall be referred to the Controller, whose decision shall be final.

(9) Every insurer shall maintain a register in which the name and address of every principal agent appointed by him, the date of such appointment and the date, if any, on which the appointment ceased shall be entered.

42-C. Regulation of employment of chief and special agents. –

(1) Every contract between an insurer carrying on life insurance business and a chief agent shall be in writing, and shall specify the area (not being less in extent than a district or the equivalent thereof) for which the chief agent is appointed, and the terms contained in Part B of the Sixth Schedule shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and form part of, every such contract.

(2) No chief agent shall, either directly or through insurance agents or special agents employed by or through him procure life insurance business for the insurer or any area outside the area for which he has been appointed or in any area for which another chief agent has been appointed or in any area in which the head office or any branch office of the insurer is operating, and neither the head office nor any branch office of the insurer shall operate in any area for which a chief agent has been appointed :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prohibit the head office of an insurer which had been operating at the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950, for a period of not less than ten years before such commencement within the municipal limits of any town where the head office is situate, and a chief agent who, in pursuance of an agreement in writing, had been operating for a similar period within such limits, from continuing to operate within the said limits :

Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prohibit an insurance agent from procuring life insurance business in or from any area and submitting the proposals direct to the principal office of the insurer in ¹[India].

(3) Within sixty days of the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), every chief agent shall file with the insurer concerned a full list of the insurance agents employed by him, indicating the terms of the contract between the chief agent and each of such insurance agents and the business secured by each of such agents, and if any chief agent fails to file such a list within the period specified, any commission payable to such chief agent on premiums received from the date of the expiry of the said period of sixty days until the date of the filing of the said list shall, notwithstanding anything in any contract to the contrary, cease to be so payable.

(4) Every contract between an insurer carrying on life insurance business and a special agent, or between a chief agent of such insurer and a special agent, shall be in writing and the terms contained in Part C of the Sixth Schedule shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and form part of, every such contract:

Provided that the Controller may, in the case of a contract between a cooperative life insurance society as defined in Cl. (b) of sub-section (1) of Sec. 95 and a co-operative society registered under the Indian Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (II of 1912), or under any other law for the time being in force and acting as a special agent, alter, to such extent as he thinks fit, all or any of the said terms.

(5) A certified copy of every contract as is referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (4) shall be furnished by the insurer or the chief agent to the Controller within thirty days of his entering into such contract, and intimation of any change in any such contract shall be furnished by the insurer or the chief agent with full particulars thereof to the Controller within thirty days of the making of any such change.

(6) No such contract as is referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (4) shall be entered into or renewed for a period exceeding ten years at any one time and notwithstanding the terms of any contract to the contrary, no option to renew any such contract given to any of the parties shall be enforceable without the consent of the other.

(7) Every contract between an insurer and a person acting on behalf of such insurer who, before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), has been employing insurance agents for the purpose of life insurance business, which is subsisting on such commencement, shall terminate after the expiration of ten years from such commencement, if it does not terminate earlier:

Provided that every such contract shall be modified by the parties before the 1st day of January, 1951, to bring it into conformity with this act, and any such modification shall-

(i) As respects remuneration, whether in respect of business already procured or in respect of business to be procured thereafter, be such as may be mutually agreed upon between the parties, subject in the case of remuneration payable on business procured before such commencement, to a maximum of an overriding commission of two and a half percent Plus a further commission not exceeding three and three-quarter percent on premiums in respect of which no commission is payable to any insurance agent;

(ii) Be deemed to include all the terms specified in Part B or Part C of the Sixth Schedule, as the case may be:

Provided further that, in the event of any dispute as to the terms of any fresh contract, the matter shall be referred to arbitration.

(8) Any such contract as is referred to in sub-section (7) which was subsisting on the last day of January, 1949, but has terminated or has been terminated before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), shall be subject to the maximum limits specified in Cl. (i) of the proviso to Sub-section (7) as respects remuneration, if any, payable on business procured before the termination of the contract.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent any special agent from receiving any renewal, commission on policies effected through him as an insurance agent at any time before his appointment as such special agent.

(10) If any dispute arises as to whether a person is or was a chief agent or a special agent for the purposes of this Act, the matter shall be referred to the Controller whose decision shall be final.

(11) Every insurer shall maintain a register in which the name and address of every chief agent appointed by him, the date on which the appointment was made and the date, if any, on which the appointment ceased shall be entered, and a separate register in which similar particulars relating to every special agent shall be entered, and every chief agent shall maintain a register in which similar particulars relating to every special agent appointed by him shall be entered.]

1. Subs. by Act 62 of 1956, Sec. 2 and Schedule, for the words “the States” (w.e.f. 1st November, 1956)

43. Register of insurance agents. – Every insurer and every person who acting on behalf of an insurer employs ¹[* * ] insurance agents shall maintain a register showing the name and address of every ² [ * *] insurance agent appointed by him and the date on which his appointment began and the date, if any, on which his appointment ceased.

1. The word ‘licensed’ omitted by Act 13 of 1941, Sec. 29 (w.e.f. 8th April 1941).

2. Sub-sections (2) and (3) omitted by Act 35 of 1957, Sec. 4 (w.e.f. 1st September, 1957).

¹44. Prohibition of cessation of payments of commission. –

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any contract between any person and an insurance agent providing for the forfeiture or stoppage of payment of renewal commission to such insurance agent, no such person shall, in respect of life insurance business transacted in India, refuse payment to an insurance agent of commission due to him on renewal premium under the agreement by reason only of the termination of his agreement, except for fraud

Provided that-

(a) Such agent ceases to act for the insurer concerned after the Central Government has notified in the official Gazette that it is satisfied that the circumstances in which the said insurer is placed are such as to justify the agent’s ceasing to act for him; or

(b) Such agent has served the insurer continually and exclusively in respect of life insurance business for at least five years and policies assuring a total sum of not less than fifty thousand rupees effected through him for the insurer were in force on a date one year before his ceasing to act as such agent for the insurer, and that the commission on renewal premiums due to him does not exceed four percent in any case; or

(c) Such agent has served the insurer continually and exclusively for at least ten years and after his ceasing to act as such agent he does not directly or indirectly solicit or procure insurance business for any other person.

Explanation. -For the purpose of this sub-section, service of an insurance agent under a chief agent of the insurer, whether before or after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 (XLVII of 1950), shall be deemed to be service under the insurer.

(2) Any commission payable to an insurance agent under the provisions of Cls. (b) and (c) of the proviso to sub-section (1) shall, notwithstanding the death of the agent, continue to be payable to his heirs for so long as such commission would have been payable had such insurance agent been alive.]

1. Subs. by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 324, for the former section (w. e.f. 1st June 1950).

2. Ins. by Act 7 of 1944, Sec. 2.

47. Payment of money into Court. -

(1) Where in respect of any policy of life insurance maturing for payment an insurer is of opinion that by reason of conflicting claims to or insufficiency of proof of title to the amount secured thereby or for any other adequate reason it is impossible otherwise for the insurer to obtain a satisfactory discharge for the payment of such amount, ¹[the insurer may], ²[* * *] apply to pay the amount into the Court within the jurisdiction of which is situated the place at which such amount is payable under the terms of the policy or otherwise.

(2) A receipt granted by the Court for any such payment shall be a satisfactory discharge to the insurer for the payment of such amount.

(3) An application for permission to make a payment into Court under this section, shall be made by a petition verified by an affidavit signed by a principal officer of the insurer setting forth the following particulars, namely:

(a) The name of the insured person and his address

(b) If the insured person is deceased, the date and place of his death

(c) The nature of the policy and the amount secured by it;

(d) The name and address of each claimant so far as is known to the insurer with details of every notice of claim received;

(e) The reasons why in the opinion of the insurer satisfactory discharge cannot be obtained for the payment of the amount; and

(f) The address at which the insurer may be served with notice of any proceeding relating to disposal of the amount paid into Court.

(4) An application under this section shall not be entertained by the Court if the application is made before the expiry of six months ³[from the maturing of the policy by survival, or from the date of receipt of notice by the insurer of the death of the insured, as the case may be].

(5) If it appears to the Court that a satisfactory discharge for the payment of the amount cannot otherwise be obtained by the insurer it shall allow the amount to be paid into Court and shall invest the amount in Government securities pending its disposal.

- (6) The insurer shall transmit to the Court every notice of claim received after the making of the application under sub-section (3), and any payment required by the Court as costs of the proceedings or otherwise in connection with the disposal of the amount paid into Court shall as to the cost of the application under sub-section (3) be borne by the insurer and as to any other costs be in the discretion of the Court.
- (7) The Court shall cause notice to be given to every ascertained claimant of the fact that the amount has been paid into Court, and shall cause notice at the cost of any claimant applying to withdraw the amount to be given to every other ascertained claimant.
- (8) The Court shall decide all questions relating to the disposal of claims to the amount paid into Court.

1. Subs. by Act 13 of 1941, Sec. 32, for the words “the insurer, shall” (w.e.f. 8th April, 1941).

2. The words “before the expiry of nine months from the date of the maturing of the policy or where the circumstances are such that the insurer cannot be immediately aware of such maturing, from the date on which notice of such maturing is given to the insurer” omitted by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 36 (w.e.f. 1st June 1950).

3. Subs. by Act 11 of 1939, Sec. 18, for the words “from the death of the insured, or the maturing of the policy by survival”.

(1) In the event of any dispute relating to the settlement of a claim on a policy of life insurance assuring a sum not exceeding two thousand rupees (exclusive of any profit or bonus not being a guaranteed profit or bonus) issued by an insurer in respect of insurance business transacted in India, arising between a claimant under the policy and the insurer who issued the policy or has otherwise assumed liability in respect thereof, the dispute may at the option of the claimant be referred to the Controller for decision and the Controller may, after giving an opportunity to the parties to be heard and after making such further inquiries as he may think fit, decide the matter.

(2) The decision of the Controller under this sub-section shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court, and may be executed by the Court, which would have been competent to decide the dispute if it had not been referred to the Controller as if it were a decree passed by that Court.

(3) There shall be charged and collected in respect of the duties of the Controller under this section such fees whether by way of percentage or otherwise as may be prescribed.]

1. Ins. by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 37 (w.e.f. 1st September, 1950).

(5) If any question arises whether a person was duly served with an order under subsection (4), the publication of the order in the official Gazette shall be conclusive roof that the order was so served, and a failure to comply with the provisions of Cl. (a) or Cl. (b) of sub-section (4) shall not affect the validity of the order.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, any property in respect of which an order has been made by the Administrator may, with the previous permission of the Administrator and subject to such terms and conditions as he may impose, be transferred or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer or, other disposition of property in, contravention of any order made by the Administrator under this section or of any terms and conditions imposed by him shall be void.

(8) For the purpose of enabling him to form an opinion as to whether any property would be liable to attachment in proceedings under Sec. 106 or for the purpose of enabling him to institute proceedings under that section, the Administrator may require any person to furnish information on such points or matters as, in the opinion of the Administrator, may be relevant for the purpose, and any person so required shall be deemed to be legally bound to furnish such information within the meaning of Sec. 176 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

(9) The Administrator shall have all the powers of a civil court under Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), while trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:

- (a) Summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses and examining them on oath;
- (b) Requiring the production of documents; and
- (c) Receiving evidence on affidavits; and any proceeding before the Administrator under this section shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Secs. 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860)

(10) Save as provided in this section or in Sec. 106, and notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, -

- (a) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie in any Court to set aside or modify any order of the Administrator or the Central Government made under this section, and
- (b) No Court shall pass any decree, grant any injunction or make any other order, which shall have the effect of nullifying or affecting in any way any such order.]

1. Ins. by Act 54 of Sec. 2 (w. e. f 1st November, 1955)

52-C. Cancellation of contracts and agreements. -The Administrator may, at any time during the continuance of his appointment with respect to an insurer and after giving an opportunity to the persons concerned to be heard, cancel or vary (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as he thinks fit to impose) any contract or agreement (other than a policy) between the insurer and any other person which the Administrator is satisfied is prejudicial to the interest of holders of life insurance policies.

52-D. Termination of appointment of Administrator. -If at any time, on a report made by the Controller in this behalf, it appears to the Central Government that the purpose of the order appointing the Administrator has been fulfilled or that for any reason it is undesirable that the order of appointment should remain in force, the Central Government may cancel the order and thereupon the Administrator shall be divested of the management of the insurance business which shall, unless otherwise directed by the Central Government, again vest in the person in whom it was vested immediately prior to the date of appointment of the Administrator.

52-E. Finality of decision appointing Administrator. -Any order or decision of the Central Government made in pursuance of Sec. 52-A or Sec. 52-D shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court.

52-F. Penalty for withholding documents of property from Administrator. -If any director or officer of the insurer or any other person fails to deliver to the Administrator any books of account, registers, or any other documents in his custody relating to the business of the insurer the management of which has vested in the Administrator, or retains any property of such insurer, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

52-G. Protection of action taken under Secs. 52-A to 52-D. –

(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against an Administrator for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of ¹[Sec. 52-A, Sec. 52-B, Sec. 52-BB or Sec. 52-C].

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or the Controller for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under Sec. 52-A, Sec. 52-B, or Sec. 52-D.]

¹[Acquisition of the Undertakings of Insurers in Certain Cases

1. Heading and Secs. 52-H to 52-N, ins. by Act 62 of 1966, Sec. 22 (w.e.f. 1st June, 1969).

52-H. Power of Central Government to acquire undertakings of insurers in certain cases. –

(1) If, upon receipt of a report from the Controller the Central Government is satisfied that an insurer,-

(a) Has persistently failed to comply with-

(i) Any direction given to him under Sec. 34, Sec. 34-F or Sec. 34-G, or

(ii) Any order made under Sec. 34-E; or

(b) Is being managed in a manner detrimental to the public interest or to the interests of his policy-holders, or share-holders, and that-

(i) In the public interest, or

(ii) In the interest of the policy-holders or share-holders of such insurer,

It is necessary to acquire the undertaking of such insurer, the Central Government may, by notified order, acquire the undertaking of such insurer (hereafter in this section and in Secs. 52-I, 52-J and 52-N and in the Eighth Schedule referred to as the acquired insurer) with effect from such date as may be specified in the order (hereafter in this section and in Secs. 52-I and 52-J and in the Eighth Schedule referred to as the appointed day):

Provided that no undertaking of an insurer shall be so acquired unless such insurer has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed action.

Explanation. -For the purposes of this section and of Secs. 52-I to 52-N-

- (a) “Notified order” means an order published in the official Gazette
 - (b) “Undertaking”, in relation to an insurer incorporated outside India, means the undertaking of the insurer in India,
- (2) Subject to the other provisions contained in this section and in Secs. 52-I to 52-M, on the appointed day, all the assets and liabilities of the undertaking of the acquired insurer shall stand transferred to, and vest in, the Central Government.
- (3) The assets and liabilities of the undertaking of the acquired insurer shall be deemed to include all rights, powers, authorities and privileges and all property, whether moveable or immovable, including, in particular, cash balance, reserve funds, investments, deposits and all other interests and rights in, or arising out of, such property, as may be in the possession of, or held by, the acquired insurer immediately before the appointed day and all books, accounts and documents relating thereto, and shall also be deemed to include all debts, liabilities and obligations, of whatever kind, then existing of the acquired insurer.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the Central Government may, if it is satisfied that all the assets and liabilities of the undertaking of the acquired insurer should, instead of vesting in the Central Government, or continuing to so vest, vest in a corporation or company, whether established under the scheme made under Sec. 52-I or not (hereafter in this section and in Secs. 52-I to 52-N and in the Eighth Schedule referred to as the acquired insurer), by order, direct that the assets and liabilities of the said undertaking, shall vest in the acquiring insurer, either on the publication of the notified order or on such other date as may be specified in this behalf in the direction.
- (5) Where the undertaking of the acquired insurer vests in an acquiring insurer under sub-section (4), the acquiring insurer shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have become the transferee of the acquired insurer and all the rights and liabilities in relation to the acquired insurer shall, on and from the date of such vesting, be deemed to have been the rights and liabilities of such acquiring insurer.
- (6) Unless otherwise expressly provided by or under this section or Secs. 52-I to 52-M, all contracts, deeds, bonds, agreements, powers of attorney, grants of legal representation and other instruments of whatever nature subsisting, having effect immediately before the appointed day and to which the acquired insurer is a party or which are in favour of the acquired insurer shall be of as full force and effect against or in favour, of the Central Government or, as the case may be, the acquiring insurer, and may be enforced or acted upon as fully and effectually as of in the place of the acquired insurer the Central Government or the acquiring insurer had been a party thereto or as if they had been issued in favour of the Central Government or the acquiring insurer, as the case may be.
- (7) If, on the appointed day, any suit, appeal or other proceeding, of whatever nature, is pending by or against the acquired insurer the same shall not abate, be discontinued or be, in any way, prejudicially affected by reason of the transfer of the undertaking of the acquired insurer or of anything contained in this section or in Secs. 52-I to 52-M, but the suit, appeal or other proceeding may be continued, prosecuted and enforced by or against the Central Government or the acquiring insurer, as the case may be.

52-I. Power of Central Government to make scheme. –

- (1) The Central Government may make a scheme for carrying out the purposes of Secs. 52 H and 52-J to 52-M (both inclusive) in relation to the acquired insurer.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the said scheme may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

- (a) Transfer of the undertaking, including the property, assets and liabilities of the acquired insurer to an acquiring insurer, and the capital, constitution, name and officer of the acquiring insurer;
 - (b) The constitution of the first Board of management by whatever name called) of the acquiring insurer and all such matters in connection therewith or incidental thereto as the Central Government may consider to be necessary or expedient;
 - (c) The continuance of the services of all the employees of the acquired insurer (excepting such of them as not being workmen within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 are specifically mentioned in the scheme) in the Central Government or in the acquiring insurer, as the case may be, on the same terms and conditions, so far as may be, as are specified in Cls. (i) and (j) of sub-section (2) of Sec. 37-A so far as they may apply;
 - (d) The continuance of the rights of any person who, on the appointed day, is entitled to, or is in receipt of, a pension or other superannuation or compassionate allowance or benefit from the acquired insurer or any provident, pension or other fund or any authority administering such fund to be paid by, and to receive from the Central Government or the acquiring insurer, as the case may be, or any provident, pension or other fund or any authority administering such fund, the same, pension, allowance or benefit so long as he observes the conditions on which the pension, allowance or benefit was granted, and if any question arises whether he has so observed such conditions, the question shall be determined by the Central Government and the decision of the Central Government thereon shall be final ;
 - (e) The manner of payment to acquired insurer in full satisfaction of his claim in relation to the compensation payment in payable with the provisions of Sec. 52-;
 - (f) The provision, if any, completing the effectual transfer to the Central Government or the acquiring insurer of any asset or liability which forms part of the undertaking of the acquired insurer in any country outside India;
 - (g) Such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters as may be necessary to secure that the transfer of the undertaking, property, assets and liabilities of the acquired insurer to the Central Government or the acquiring insurer, as the case may be, is effectual and complete.
- (3) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, to, amend or vary any scheme made under this section.
 - (4) Every scheme made under this section shall be published in the official Gazette.
 - (5) Copies of every scheme made under this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made.
 - (6) The provisions of Secs. 52-H and 52-J to 52-M and of any scheme made under this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act or in any other law or any agreement, award or other instrument for the time being in force.

52-J. Compensation to be given to the acquired insurer. –

- (1) The acquired insurer shall be given by the Central Government or the acquiring insurer, as the case may be, such compensation in respect of the transfer of the undertaking of, the acquired insurer as is determined in accordance with the principles contained in the Eighth Schedule.

(2) The amount of compensation to be given in accordance with the principles contained in the Eighth Schedule shall be determined, in the first instance, by the Central Government or the acquiring insurer, as the case may be, in consultation with the Controller, and shall be offered by it to the acquired insurer, in full satisfaction thereof.

(3) If the amount of compensation offered in terms of sub-section (2) is not acceptable to the acquired insurer, he may, before such date as may be notified by the Central Government in the official Gazette, request the Central Government in writing to have the matter referred to the Tribunal constituted under Sec. 52-K.

(4) If before the date notified under sub-section (3) the Central Government does not receive request as provided in that sub-section, the amount of compensation offered under sub-section (2), or where a reference has been made to the Tribunal, the amount determined by it, shall be the compensation payable under sub-section (1) and shall be final and binding on all the parties concerned.

(5) Where the Central Government does not receive request as provided in sub-section (3), the compensation payable in pursuance of the provisions of this section shall become due for payment on the expiry of one year from the appointed day, and where a reference has been made to the Tribunal under subsection (3), the amount determined by the Tribunal as compensation shall become due for payment on the expiry of one year from the appointed day or on the date of decision of the Tribunal, whichever is earlier.

(6) If between the appointed day and the date on which the compensation becomes due in pursuance of sub-section (5), any facts come to light which call for revision of the amount of the compensation, the necessary modification of the amount of the compensation shall be made and the amount of the compensation so determined shall be the compensation payable in pursuance of sub-section (1).

(7) There shall also be paid simple interest at the rate of three percent per annum on the amount of the compensation for the period from the appointed day to the date on which payment of the compensation become due.

52-K. Constitution of the Tribunal. –

4. Ins. by Act 11 of 1939, Sec. 21.
5. Ins. by Act 13 of 1941, Sec. 37 (w.e.f. 8th April 1941).
6. Subs. by Act 62 of 1968, Sec. 23 (w. e. f 1st June, 1969).

¹[53-A. Unpaid-up share capital. -Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, in ascertaining for any purpose of this Act the solvency of otherwise of an insurer, no account shall be taken of any assets of the insurer consisting of unpaid-up share capital.]

1. Ins. by Act 62 of 1968, Sec. 25 (w.e.f. 1st June 1969),

54. Voluntary winding up. -Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913), 1 an insurance company shall not be wound up voluntarily except for the purpose of effecting an amalgamation or a re-construction of the company, or on the ground that by reason of its liabilities it cannot continue its business.

1. See now the Companies Act. 1956 (1 of 1956).

55. Valuation of liabilities. -

(1) In the winding up of an insurance company or in the insolvency of any other insurer the value of the assets and the liabilities of the insurer shall be ascertained in such manner and upon such basis as the liquidator or receiver in insolvency thinks fit, subject, so far as applicable, to the rule contained in the ¹[Seventh Schedule] and to any directions which may be given by the Court.

(2) For the purposes of any reduction by the Court of the amount of the contracts of any insurance company the value of the assets and liabilities of the company and all claims in respect of policies issued by it shall be ascertained in such manner and upon such basis as the Court thinks proper having regard to the rule aforesaid.

(3) The rule in the ¹[Seventh Schedule] shall be of the same force and may be repealed, altered or amended as if it were a rule made in pursuance of Sec. 246 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913), and rules may be made under that section for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to the winding up of insurance companies.

1. Subs. by Act 47 of 1950, Se4. 43, for the words “Six, Schedule” (w.e.f. 1st September, 1950).

56. Application of surplus assets of life insurance fund in liquidation or insolvency. -

(1) In the winding up of an insurance company and in the insolvency of any other insurer the value of the assets and the liabilities of the insurer in respect of life insurance business shall be ascertained separately from the value of any other assets or any other liabilities of the insurer and no such assets shall be applied to the discharge of any liabilities other than those in respect of life insurance business except in so far as those assets exceed the liabilities in respect of life-insurance business.

(2) In the winding up of an insurance company carrying on the business of life insurance or in the insolvency of any other insurer carrying on such business where any proportion of the profits of the insurer was before the commencement of the winding up or insolvency allocated to policy-holders, if, when the assets and liabilities of the insurer have been ascertained, there is found to be a surplus of assets over liabilities (hereinafter referred to as a prima facie surplus) there shall be added to the liabilities of the insurer in respect of the life-insurance business an amount equal to such proportion of the prima facie surplus as is equivalent to such proportion of the profits allocated to shareholders and policy-holders as was allocated to policy-holders during the ten years immediately preceding the commencement of the winding up and the assets of the insurer shall be deemed to exceed his liabilities only in so far as those assets exceed those liabilities after such addition:

Provided that-

(a) If in any case there has been no such allocation or if it appears to the Court that by reason of, special circumstances it would be inequitable that the amount to be added to the liabilities of the insurer in respect of the life insurance business should be an amount equal to such proportion as aforesaid, the amount to be so added shall be such amount as the Court may direct, and

(b) For the purpose of the application of this sub-section to any case where before the commencement of the winding up or insolvency a proportion of such profits as aforesaid of a branch only of the life insurance business in question has been allocated to policyholders, the value of the assets and liabilities of the insurer in respect of that branch shall be separately ascertained in like manner as the value of his assets and liabilities in respect to the life insurance business was ascertained, and the surplus so found, if any, of assets over liabilities shall, for the purpose of determining the amount to be added to the liabilities of the insurer in respect of the life insurance business be deemed to be the prima facie surplus.

57. Winding up of secondary companies. -

(1) Where the insurance business or any part of the insurance business of an insurance company has been transferred to another insurance company under an arrangement in pursuance of which the first mentioned company (in this section referred to as the secondary company) or the creditors thereof has or have claims against the company to which such transfer was made (in this section referred to as the principal company) then, if the principal company is being wound up by or under the supervision of the Court, the Court shall (subject as hereinafter mentioned) order the secondary company to be wound up in conjunction with the principal company and may, by the same or any subsequent order appoint the same person to be liquidator for the two companies and make provision for such other matters as may seem to the Court necessary with a view to the companies being wound up as if they were one company.

(2) The commencement of the winding up of the principal company shall, save as otherwise ordered by the Court, be the commencement of the winding up of the secondary company.

(3) In adjusting the rights and liabilities of the members of the several companies among themselves the Court shall have regard to the constitution of the companies and to the arrangements entered into between the companies in the same manner as the Court has regard to the rights and liabilities of different classes of contributories in the case of the winding-up of a single company or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

(4) Where any company alleged to be secondary, is not in process of being wound up at the same time as the principal company to which it is alleged to be secondary, the Court shall not direct the secondary company to be wound up, unless, after hearing all objections (if any) that may be urged by or on behalf of the company against its being wound up, the Court is of opinion that the company is secondary to the principal company and that the winding up of the company in conjunction with the principal company is just and equitable.

(5) An application may be made in relation to the winding up of any secondary company in conjunction with the principal company by any creditor of, or person interested in, the principal or secondary company.

(6) Where a company stands in the relation of a principal company to one insurance company and in the relation of a secondary company to some other insurance company or where there are several insurance companies standing in the relation of secondary companies to one principal company, the Court may deal with any number of such companies together or in separate groups as it thinks most expedient upon the principles laid down in this section.

58. Schemes for partial winding-up of insurance companies. -

(1) If at any time it appears expedient that the affairs of an insurance company in respect of any class of business comprised in the undertaking of the Company should be wound up but that any other class of business comprised in the undertaking should continue to be carried on by the company or be transferred to another insurer, a scheme for such purposes may be prepared and submitted for confirmation of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any scheme prepared under this section shall provide for the allocation and distribution of the assets and liabilities of the company between any classes of business affected (including the allocation of any surplus assets which may arise on the proposed winding-up) for any future-rights of every class of policy-holders in respect of their policies and for the manner of winding-up any of the affairs of the company which are proposed to be wound up and may contain provisions for altering the memorandum of the company with respect to its objects and such further provisions as may be expedient for giving effect to the scheme.

(3) The provisions of this Act relating to the valuation of liabilities of insurers in liquidation and insolvency and to the application of surplus assets of the life insurance fund in liquidation or insolvency shall apply to the winding up of any part of the affairs of a company in accordance with the scheme under this section in like manner as they apply in the winding up of an insurance company, and any scheme under this section may apply with the necessary modifications any of the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913),¹ relating to the winding up of companies.

(4) An order of the Court confirming a scheme under this section whereby the memorandum of a company is altered with respect to its objects shall as respects the alteration have effect as if it were an order confirmed under Sec. 12 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913),² and the provisions of Secs. 15, and 16 of that Act shall apply accordingly. -

59. Return of deposits. -In the winding up of an insurance company 1[(otherwise than in a case to which Sec. 58 applies)] and in the insolvency of any other insurer the liquidator or assignee as the case may be shall apply to the Court for an order for the return of the ²[deposit made by the company or the insurer, as the case may be, under Sec. 7 or Sec. 981 and the Court shall on such application order a return of the deposit subject to such terms and conditions as it shall direct.

1. Ins. by Sec. 6 of 1946, Sec. 27 (w.e.f. 20th March, 1946).

2. Subs. by Act 11 of 1939, Sec. 22, for the words “deposit made by the company under Sec. 4.”

60. Notice of policy values. -In the winding up of an insurance company for the purposes of a cash distribution of the assets and in the insolvency of any other insurer the liquidator or assignee, as the case may be, in the case of all persons appearing by the books of the company or other insurer to be entitled to or interested in the policies granted by the company or other insurer shall ascertain the value of the liability of the company or other insurer to each such person and shall give notice of such value to those persons in such manner as the Court may direct and any person to whom notice is so given shall be bound by the value so ascertained unless he gives notice of his intention to dispute such value in such manner and within such time as may be specified by a rule or order of the Court.

61. Power of Court to reduce contracts of insurance. -

- (1) Where an insurance company is in liquidation or any other insurer is insolvent, the Court may make an order reducing the amount of the insurance contracts of the company or other insurer upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks just.
- (2) Where a company carrying on the business of life insurance has been proved to be insolvent, the Court may if it thinks fit in place of making a winding up order reduce the amount of the insurance contracts of the company upon Such terms and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit.
- (3) Application for an order under this section may be made either by the liquidator or by or on behalf of the company or by a policy-holder, or by the ¹[Controller] and the ²[Controller] and any person whom the Court thinks likely to be affected shall be entitled to be heard on any such application.

- (2) The Secretary to the Advisory Committee shall be an officer of the office of the Controller, nominated by the Controller.

64-UB. Power to make rules in respect of matters in this part. –

- (1) The Central Government ¹[by notification in the official Gazette] may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Part.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely, -
- (a) The functions to be discharged by the Advisory Committee;
 - (b) The term of office of the members of the Advisory Committee, the procedure for their election and the manner of filling casual vacancies in the Advisory Committee;
 - (c) The travelling and other allowances payable to the members of the Advisory Committee;
 - (d) The procedure for holding the meeting of the Advisory Committee and for transaction of business thereat.
- (3) The Advisory Committee may, ¹[by notification in the official Gazette] with the previous approval of the Central Government, make Regulations for all or any of the following matters, namely, -
- (a) The constitution, powers and duties of Regional Committees and of sub-committees constituted by the Advisory committee or any Regional Committee;
 - (b) The method of election of candidates for Regional Committees and of sub-committees, their eligibility, term of office and method of filling casual vacancies;
 - (c) The procedure for convening meetings and transaction of business by Regional committees and sub-committees;
 - (d) The appointment of officers and other employees of the Advisory Committee and of Regional Committees or sub-committees constituted by or under the Advisory Committee or any Regional Committee and the terms and conditions of their service including travelling and other allowances;

(e) Such other matters pertaining to procedure as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of rules made thereunder, and may, from time to time, with the previous approval of the Central Government, add to, amend or vary and such regulations.

(4) The regulations made by the Tariff Committee of the General Insurance Council under Sec. 640 as, they were in force immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, shall, after such commencement, continue to be in force until rules are made by the Central Government under sub-section (1) and immediately after such rules have come into effect, the regulations aforesaid shall cease to be valid.

(5) The Controller of Insurance shall be in direct charge of the establishment of the Advisory Committee and the Secretary of the Advisory Committee shall work under his direction and control.

1. Ins by Act 20 of 1983, Sec. 2 the Schedule, item (22) (w.e.f. 15th March, 1984).

64-UC. Power of the Advisory Committee to regulate rates, advantages, etc.-

(1) The Advisory Committee may, from time to time and to the extent it deems expedient, control and regulate the rates, advantages, terms and conditions that may be offered by insurers in respect of any risk or any class or category of risks, the rates, advantages, terms and conditions of which, in its opinion, it is proper to control and regulate, and any such rate, advantages, terms and conditions shall be binding on all insurers:

Provided that the Controller may, with the previous approval of the Central Government, permit any insurer to offer, during such period (being not more than two years but which may be extended by periods of not more than two years at a time) and subject to such conditions as may be specified by him, rates, advantages, terms or conditions different from those fixed by the Advisory Committee in respect of any particular category of risks, if he is satisfied that such insurer generally issues policies only to a restricted class of the public or under a restricted category of risks.

(2) In fixing, amending or modifying any rates, advantages, terms or conditions, relating to any risk, the Advisory Committee shall try to ensure, as far as possible, that there is no unfair discrimination between risk of essentially the same hazard, and also that consideration is given to past and prospective loss experience:

Provided that the Advisory Committee may, at, its discretion, make suitable allowances for the degree of credibility to be assigned to the past experience including allowances for random fluctuations and may also, at its discretion, make suitable allowances for future fluctuations and unforeseen future contingencies including hazards of conflagration or catastrophe or both.

(3) Every decision of the Advisory Committee shall be valid only after and to the extent it is ratified by the Controller, and every such decision shall take effect from the date on which it is so ratified by the Controller, or if the Controller so orders in any case, from such earlier date as he may specify in the order.

(4) The decisions of the Advisory Committee in pursuance of the provisions of this section shall be final.

(5) Where an insurer is guilty of breach of any rate, advantage, term or condition fixed by the Advisory Committee, he shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act:

Provided that instead of proceeding against the insurer for such contravention, the Controller may, if the insurer removes the contravention by recovering the deficiency in the premium, or where it is not practicable to do so, modifies suitably or cancels the contract of insurance, compound the offence on payment to the Advisory Committee of such fine, not exceeding rupees one thousand, as he may decide in consultation with the Advisory Committee.

64-UD. Transitional provisions. –

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, until the names of the members of the Advisory Committee elected for the first time after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, are notified, the Tariff Committee of the General Insurance Council appointed under regulations made under sub-section (2) of Sec. 64-O as it was in force immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, and in existence on such commencement (hereafter in this Part referred to as the Tariff Committee) shall continue to function and shall be deemed to be the Advisory Committee duly elected under this Part and the Controller of Insurance shall become the Chairman of that Committee with effect from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, and function as such, and any chairman of the Tariff Committee holding office immediately before such commencement shall cease to be the Chairman thereof from the date of such commencement but shall continue to be an ordinary member of the Advisory Committee.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, the constitutions of the Regional Councils established under Sec. 64-P, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968 (hereafter referred to as the Regional Councils), and of the Sectional Committees formed thereunder, existing immediately before such commencement, shall continue to be in full force and be of full effect until the regulations made by the Advisory Committee for the first time under Sec. 64-UB come into effect and as soon as such regulations have come into effect such constitutions shall cease to have effect.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, until the Secretary to the Advisory Committee is nominated under sub-section (2) of Sec. 64-UA, the Secretary to the Tariff Committee holding office immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, shall function as the Secretary and shall be deemed to have been duly nominated under this Part.

(4) All rates, advantages, terms and conditions fixed by the Tariff Committee or the Regional Councils prior to the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, and in force immediately before such commencement shall continue, except to such extent as they may be altered, replaced or abolished by the Advisory Committee, to be valid and fully in force as if they were rates, advantages, terms and conditions fixed by the Advisory Committee.

64-UE. Power of the Advisory Committee to require information, etc, -

(1) The Advisory Committee may require, by notice in writing, any insurer to supply to it such information or statements, periodical or ad hoc, as it may consider necessary to enable it to discharge its functions under this Part and every insurer shall comply with such requirements within such period as may be specified by the Advisory Committee, in this behalf, failing which the insurer shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any information supplied under this section shall be certified by a principal officer of the insurer or where the Advisory Committee has agreed in advance, by such other officer or officers of the insurer as the principal officer of the insurer may nominate for the purpose and if the notice so requires, also by an auditor.

(3) The Controller may, at any time, in writing, depute any subordinate of his, to make a personal inspection of the books of account, ledgers, policy registers and other books or documents of any insurer to verify the accuracy of any return or statement furnished by him under sub-section (1), or to verify that full particulars have been supplied by him in respect of all policies issued by him, and the insurer shall provide all facilities for such inspection, and make available to such person all the books of account, ledgers, policy-registers a other books or documents of the insurer which might be needed by him for such verification and the person deputed may himself extract from, out of the book and records of the insurer such information as may be needed to fill up o complete the returns required to be submitted to the Advisory Committee under this section.

(4) The Advisory Committee may, at any time, on the application of a insurer, make arrangements for the inspection of an Organisation which is concerned with the inspection of risks, adjustment of losses or fire-fighting appliances, and may, whenever necessary, advise insurers about the adequacy of the arrangements for the inspection of risks and adjustment of losses or the suitability of such appliances:

Provided that no such inspection shall be made without the written permission of the concerned Organisation.

64-UF. Assets and liabilities of the General Insurance Council to vest in the Advisory Committee. –

(1) On the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, all the assets and liabilities of the General Insurance Council appertaining to its Tariff Committee and to its Regional Councils a their Sectional Committees existing on that day shall be transferred to, and vest in, the Advisory Committee.

(2) The assets appertaining to the Tariff Committee, the Regional Councils, and their Sectional Committees shall be deemed to include all right and powers and all property, whether moveable or immovable, including in particular, cash balances, reserve funds, investments, deposits and all of interests and rights in, or arising out of, such property as may be in the possession of the Tariff Committee, Regional Councils and their Section Committees and all books of account or documents thereof; and liabilities shall be deemed to include all debts, liabilities and obligations of whatever kin existing and appertaining to the work of the Tariff Committee, the Regional Councils and their Sectional Committees.

(3) Where the General Insurance Council has established a provident superannuation fund or any other fund for the benefit of the employees of its Tariff Committee or Regional Councils and constituted a trust in respect thereof (hereafter in this section referred to an existing trust), the monies standing the credit of any such fund at the commencement of the Insurance (Amend Act, 1968, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), stand transferred and vest in, on such commencement, the Advisory Committee.

(4) Where any employee of the Tariff Committee, or the Region Councils, or the General Insurance Council does not become an employee of Advisory Committee, the monies and other assets appertaining to any fund referred to in sub-section (3) shall be apportioned between the trustees of fund and the Advisory Committee in the prescribed manner; and in case of a dispute regarding such apportionment, the decision of the Central Govern thereon shall be final.

(5) The Advisory-Committee shall, as soon as may be after t commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, constitute in respect the monies and other assets which are transferred to, and vested in it, und sub-section (3), one or more trusts having as far as practicable, objects similar the objects of the existing trusts.

(6) Where all the monies and other assets belonging to an existing trust are transferred to, and vested in, the Advisory Committee under sub-section (3), the trustees of such trust shall, on the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, be discharged from the trust except as respects things done or omitted to be done by them before such commencement.

64-UG. Contracts, etc. to be effective by or against the Advisory Committee. –

(1) Unless otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, all contracts, agreements and other instruments of whatever nature subsisting or having effect immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, and to which Tariff Committee, or any Regional Council is a party or which is in favour of that Committee or that Council, shall be of as full force and effect against or in favour of the Advisory Committee and may be enforced or acted upon as fully and effectually as if, instead of the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Council, the Advisory Committee had been a party thereto or as if they had been entered into or issued in favour of the Advisory Committee.

(2) If, at the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, any suit, appeal or other legal proceeding of whatever nature is pending by or against the Tariff Committee, or any Regional Council then it shall not abate, be discontinued or in any way be prejudicially affected by reason of the transfer to the Advisory Committee of the assets and liabilities of the Tariff Committee, and the Regional Councils or of anything done under this Act, but the suit, appeal or other proceeding may be continued, prosecuted or enforced by or against the Advisory Committee.

(1) Every whole-time employee of the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Councils who was employed by that Committee or those Councils wholly or mainly in connection with its or their statutory duties immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, shall, on and from such commencement, become an employee of the Advisory Committee and shall hold his office in it by the same tenure, at the same remuneration, and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rates and privileges as to pension, gratuity and other matters as he would have held on such commencement if this Part had not been enacted, and shall continue to do so until his employment under the Advisory Committee is terminated or until his remuneration, terms and conditions, are duly altered by the Advisory Committee:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any employee who has given notice to the Central Government in writing either prior to or within two months from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, intimating his intention of not becoming an employee of the Advisory Committee.

(2) Where the Central Government is satisfied that for the purpose of securing uniformity in the scales of pay, remuneration and other terms and conditions of service applicable to employees of the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Councils, it is necessary so to do, or that a reduction in the remuneration payable or revision of the other terms and conditions of service applicable to employees or any class of them is called for, the Central Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), or in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or in any other law, for the time being in force or in any award settlement, or agreement for the time being in force, alter (whether by way of reduction or otherwise) the remuneration and other terms and conditions of service to such extent and in such manner as it thinks fit ; and if the alteration is not acceptable to any employee, the Advisory Committee may terminate his employment by giving him compensation equivalent to three month's remuneration, unless the contract of service with such employees provides for a shorter notice of termination.

Explanation. -The compensation payable to an employee under this subsection shall be in addition to and shall not affect any pension, gratuity, provident fund money or any other benefit to which the employee may be entitled under his contract of service.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any person was a whole time employee of the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Council, on the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, or as to whether any employee was employed wholly or mainly in connection with the statutory duties of the Tariff Committee, or any Regional Council immediately before such commencement, the question shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of the services of any employee of the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Councils, to the Advisory Committee shall not entitle any such employee to any compensation under that Act or other law, and no such claim shall be entertained by any Court, tribunal or other authority.

64-UI. Duty of person having custody or control of property to deliver such property to the Advisory Committee. –

(1) Where any property of the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Councils (appertaining to its or their statutory duties) has been transferred to, and vested in, the Advisory Committee, then, -

(a) Every person in whose possession, custody or control any such property may be shall deliver the property to the Advisory Committee forthwith;

(b) Any person, who, on the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, has in his possession, custody or control any books, documents and other papers relating to the Tariff Committee, or the Regional Councils, shall be liable to account for the said books, document and papers to the Advisory Committee and shall deliver them to such person as the Committee may direct.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in this section, it shall be lawful for the Advisory Committee to take all necessary steps for securing possession of all properties which have been transferred to and vested in under this Act.

64-UJ. Power of the Advisory Committee to constitute Region Committees. –

(1) The Advisory Committee may constitute such Region Committees as and when it deems fit for one or more of the prescribed regions.

(2) Each Regional Committee shall consist of not more than seven persons of which not more than five shall be elected by such groups of insurers carrying on general insurance business in the region as may be prescribed and not mo than two shall be nominated by the Controller.

(3) For the purpose of enabling it effectively to discharge its duties, any Regional Committee may constitute such sub-committees as it may think fit, whether consisting of members of the Regional Committee or not.

(4) It shall be the duty of every Regional committee to advise the Advisory Committee on any question connected with the fixation of rates, advantages, terms and conditions for risks in its region which may be referred to it by the Advisory Committee for advice, and in addition, every Regional Committee shall perform such other functions as may be delegated to it by the Advisory Committee by regulations made by it with the previous approval of the Central Government.

(5) Where, in the exercise of any functions delegated to it under this section, any Regional Committee or any sub-committee thereof restrains an insurance agent from procuring or causing to be procured general insurance business in any area, such agent may prefer an appeal to the Central Government against such order within thirty days from the date of service of that order on him and the Central Government may, after giving such agent an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it may think fit and the orders made by the Central Government on such appeal shall be final.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section every Regional Council and every sectional or other Committee of the Regional Council, in existence immediately before the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, shall, until it is abolished by the Advisory Committee, be deemed to be a Regional Committee or sub-committee as the case may be, established in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall function as such and shall have all the powers and responsibilities which it had immediately before such commencement, and if the term of any such Council or Committee expires before Regional Committees constituted under sub-section (1) and subcommittees constituted under sub-section (3) come into existence, such terms shall be deemed to have been validly extended up to the time when such Regional Committees and sub-committees are established.

64-UK. Levy of fees by the Advisory Committee. –

- (1) Every insurer shall annually before the prescribed date make payment to the Advisory Committee in the prescribed manner of such fees, not exceeding for any year, in the case of an insurer doing only re-insurance business in India, one percent of his total premiums in respect of facultative re-insurance accepted by him in India in the preceding year and in the case of any other insurer, one percent of the total gross premium written direct by him in India in the preceding year, as may be specified by the Advisory Committee for the purpose of this part.
- (2) The Advisory Committee may collect, in addition to the fees mentioned in sub-section (1), reasonable fees and charges from any person to cover the cost of any specific services rendered by it.
- (3) If an insurer fails to make payment within the prescribed date of any fee required to be paid under sub-section (1) he shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act.
- (4) The Controller may, so long as an application to the Court under subsection (5-D) of Sec. 3 has not been made, revive the registration, which might have been cancelled for failure to make payment of the fee required to be made under subsection (1), if the insurer makes payment of such fee together with such penalty not exceeding the actual amount of fee payable as the Controller may require.

64-UL. Power to remove difficulties. -If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Part, the Central Government may, by order, make such provisions or give such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the removal of the difficulty:

Provided that no such power shall be exercised after the expiry of a period of four years from the commencement of this Part.

64-UM. Licensing of surveyors and loss assessors. –

- (1)
 - (A) Save as otherwise provided in this section, no person shall act as a surveyor or loss assessor in respect of general insurance business after the expiry of a period of one year from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, unless he holds a valid licence issued to him by the Controller.
 - (B) Every person who intends to act as a surveyor or loss assessor after the expiry of a period of one year from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, shall make an application to the Controller within such time, in such form, in such manner and on payment of such fee, not exceeding rupees two hundred and fifty, as may be prescribed.
 - (C) Every licence issued under this section shall remain in force, unless cancelled earlier, for a period of five years from the date of issue thereof, and may be renewed for a period of five years at a time, on payment of such fee, not exceeding rupees two hundred, as may be prescribed.
 - (D) No licence to act as a surveyor or loss assessor shall be issued unless-

- (i) The applicant, where he is an individual, satisfied the Controller that he-
 - (a) Has been in practice as a surveyor or loss assessor on the 26th day of October, 1968, or
 - (b) Holds a degree of a recognised University in any branch of engineering, or
 - (c) Is a fellow or associate member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India or the Institute of cost and Works Accountants of India, or
 - (d) Possesses actuarial qualifications or holds a degree or diploma of any recognized University or institute in relation to insurance, or
 - (e) Holds a diploma in insurance granted or recognised by the Government, or
 - (f) Possesses such other technical qualification as may be prescribed, and
 - (g) Does not suffer from any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (4) of Sec. 42;
- (ii) The applicant, where he is a company or firm satisfies the Controller that all his directors or partners, as the case may in, possess one or more of the qualifications specified in Cl. (i) and none of such directors or partners suffer from any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (4) of Sec. 42.
- (E) Every application for the renewal of the licence shall be made at least thirty days before the expiry of the period of validity thereof.
- (F) The Controller may, if he is satisfied that any licence issued or renewed under this section has been lost or destroyed, issue a duplicate licence on payment of a fee of rupees five and the duplicate licence so issued shall remain in force for the remainder of the period of a validity of the licence in lieu of which it is issued.
- (G) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by sub-section (7), the Controller, if satisfied that the holder of any licence has made a statement which is false in material particulars with regard to his eligibility for obtaining such licence or has, after the issue or renewal of such licence, acquired any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (4) of Sec. 42, may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the holder of such licence of being heard, by order cancel such licence and notify such cancellation in the official Gazette.
- (2) No claim in respect of a loss which has occurred in India and requiring to be paid or settled in India equal to or exceeding twenty thousand rupees in value on any policy of insurance, arising or intimated to an insurer at any time after the expiry of a period of one year from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, shall, unless otherwise directed by the Controller, be admitted for payment or settled by the insurer unless he has obtained a report, on the loss that has occurred, from a person who holds a licence issued under this section to act as a surveyor or loss assessor (hereafter referred to as “approved surveyor or loss assessor”):

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to take away or abridge the right of the insurer to pay or settle any claim at any amount different from the amount assessed by the approved surveyor or loss assessor.
- (3) The Controller may, at any time, in respect of any claim of the nature referred to in sub-section (2), call for an independent report from any other approved surveyor or loss assessor specified by him and such surveyor or loss assessor shall furnish such report to the Controller within such time as may be specified by the Controller or if no time limit has been specified by him within reasonable time and the cost of, or incidental to, such report shall be borne by the insurer.
- (4) The Controller may, on receipt of a report referred to in sub-section (3), issue such directions as he may consider necessary with regard to the settlement of the claim including any direction to settle a claim at a figure less than, or more than, that at which it is proposed to settle it or it was settled and the insurer shall be bound to comply with such directions:

Provided that where the Controller issues a direction for settling a claim at a figure lower than that at which it has already been settled, the insurer shall be deemed to comply with such direction if he satisfies the Controller that all reasonable steps with due regard to the question whether the expenditure involved is not disproportionate to the amount required to be recovered, have been taken with due despatch by him:

Provided further that no direction for the payment of a lesser sum shall be made where the amount of the claim has already been paid and the Controller is of opinion that the recovery of the amount paid in excess would cause undue hardship to the insured-

Provided also that nothing in this section shall release any the insurer from any liability, civil or criminal, to which he would have been subject but for the provisions of this sub-section.

(5) No insurer shall, after the expiry of a period of one year from the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, pay to any person any fee or remuneration for surveying, verifying or reporting on a claim of loss under a policy of insurance unless the person making such survey, verification or report is an approved surveyor or loss assessor.

(6) Where, in the case of a claim of less than twenty thousand rupees in value on any policy of insurance it is not practicable for an insurer to employ an approved surveyor or loss assessor without incurring expenses disproportionate to the amount of the claim, the insurer may employ any other person (not being a person disqualified for the time being for being employed as a surveyor or loss assessor) for surveying such loss and may pay such reasonable fee or remuneration to the person so employed as he may think fit.

(7) If the Controller is satisfied that an approved surveyor or loss assessor has been guilty of wilfully making a false statement knowing it to be false or of being knowingly a party to the settlement of a claim in a fraudulent manner, he may, after giving such surveyor or loss assessor an opportunity of being heard, cancel the licence issued to him with effect from such date as may be specified by him and shall notify such cancellation in the official Gazette.

(8) Any surveyor or loss assessor whose licence has been cancelled shall not be eligible for having a licence to act as a surveyor or loss assessor for a period of three years from the date on which the cancellation is notified in the official Gazette.

(9) The Controller may respect of any claim of value of less than twenty thousand rupees on an insurance policy, if the claim has not been or is not proposed to be reported upon by a surveyor or loss assessor, direct that such claim shall be reported upon by an approved surveyor or loss assessor and where the Controller makes such direction, the provisions of sub sections (3) and (4) shall apply in respect of such claim.

(10) Where, in relation to any class of claims, the Central Government is satisfied that it is customary to entrust the work of survey or less assessment to any person other than a licensed surveyor or loss assessor, or if not practicable to make any survey or loss assessment, it may, by an order published in the Gazette, exempt such class of claims from the operation of this section.

PART II-C

Solvency Margin, Advance Payment of Premium and Restrictions on the Opening of a New Place of Business

64-V. Assets and liabilities how to be valued. –

CONTENTS

(1) For the purpose of ascertaining compliance with the provisions of Sec. 64-VA -

(i) Assets shall be valued at values not exceeding their market or realisable value and the assets hereafter mentioned shall be excluded to the extent indicated, namely:

(a) Agents balances and outstanding premiums in India, to the extent they are not realised within a period of thirty days;

(c) Estimated liability in respect of outstanding claims, in full;

(d) Amount due to insurance companies carrying on insurance business in full;

(e) Amounts due to sundry creditors, in full;

(f) Provision for taxation, in full.

Explanation. -In the case of an insurer, whose principal place of business or domicile is outside India, where, in the accounts filed with the public authority of the country in which the insurer is constituted, incorporated or domiciled, in respect of marine insurance business, the provisions for unexpired risks and outstanding claims are not shown separately, the liabilities under items (b) and (c) of Cl. (ii) in respect of marine insurance business shall be taken together at a figure of not less than the total premium less-reinsurances in respect of that class of business during the preceding twelve months.

(2) Every insurer shall furnish to the Controller with his returns under Sec. 15 or Sec. 16, as the case may be, a statement certified by an auditor, of his assets and liabilities assessed in the manner required by this section as on the 31st day of December of the preceding year.

64-VA. Sufficiency of assets. –

(1) An insurer shall, at all times, maintain an excess of the value of his assets over the amount of his liabilities of not less than the amount arrived at as follows (hereafter in this section referred to as the “relevant amount”), namely-

(i) In the case of an insurer whose total premium income less reinsurances in respect of general insurance business (hereafter in this subsection referred to as the “said income”) in the preceding twelve months did not exceed five crores of rupees, one fifth of the said income subject to a minimum of-

(a) Five lakhs of rupees in the case of an insurer who is a cooperative society registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912), or any other law for the time being in force in any state relating to co-operative societies, or

(b) Ten lakhs of rupees in the case of any other insurer; and

(ii) In the case of an insurer whose said income in the preceding twelve months exceeded five crores of rupees, the aggregate of one-fifth of the first five crores of rupees of the said income and one-tenth of the amount by which the said income in the preceding twelve months exceeded five crores of rupees:

Provided that where a number of insurers occupying the status of parent and subsidiary companies prepare, under the laws of the country of origin of the parent company, a consolidated balance-sheet, the provisions of this subsection shall apply to such of them as are not members of any group as if they constituted a single insurer, subject to the further condition that the relevant amount shall, in no case, be less than a sum equal to-

(i) The number of such insurers multiplied by ten lakhs of rupees, or

(ii) Where all the insurers are co-operative societies registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912), or any other law for the time being in force in any State relating to co-operative societies, the number of such insurers multiplied by five lakhs of rupees:

Provided further that if in respect of any insurer the Central Government is satisfied that either by reason of an unfavourable claim, experience or because of a sharp increase in the volume of new business, or for any other reason, compliance with the provisions of this sub-section would cause undue hardship to the insurer, it may direct that for such period and subject to such conditions as it may specify, the provisions of this sub-section shall apply to that insurer with the modification that instead of the proportion of one-fifth, wherever mentioned in this sub-section, such other proportion being not less than one tenth as may be specified by that Government shall be applicable to that insurer:

Provided also that in the case of an insurer carrying on insurance business at the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of this sub-section until the 31st December, 1972 or until such subsequent date, not being later than 31st December, 1976, as the Central Government may, at its discretion, allow for any particular insurer, if he progressively brings up the excess of the value of his assets over the amount of his liabilities, in such manner as may be prescribed, to the relevant amount.

(2) An insurer who does not comply with the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be insolvent and may be wound up by the Court.

(3) The Controller shall be entitled at any time to take such steps as he may consider necessary for the inspection or verification of the assets and liabilities of any insurer or for securing the particulars necessary to establish that the requirements of this section have been complied with as on any date and the insurer shall comply with any requisition made in this behalf by the Controller, and if he fails to do so within two months from the receipt of the requisition, he shall be deemed to have made default in complying with the requirements of this section.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an insurer specified in sub-clause (c) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2.

(5) In applying the provisions of sub-section (1) to any insurer, who is a member of a group, the relevant amount for that insurer shall be an amount equal to that proportion of the relevant amount which that group, if considered as a single insurer, would have been required to maintain as the proportion of his share of the risk on each policy issued by the group bears to the total risk on that policy:

Provided that when a group of insurers ceases to be a group, every insurer in that group who continues to carry on any class of insurance business in India shall comply with the requirements of sub-section (1) as if he had not been an insurer in a group at any time:

Provided further that it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of the foregoing proviso if the insurer brings up the excess of the value of his assets over the amount of his liabilities to the required amount within a period of six months from the date of cessation of the group:

Provided also that the Central Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, extend the said period of six months by such further periods as it may think fit, so however that the total period may not in any case exceed one year.

(6) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, reduce the sum of ten lakhs of rupees or five lakhs of rupees, as the case may be, referred to in sub-section (1) to a lower figure not less than one hundred thousand rupees in respect of a country craft insurer or in respect of an insurer not having a share capital and carrying on only such insurance business as, in the opinion of the Central Government, is not carried on ordinarily by insurers under separate policies.

64-VB. No risk to be assumed unless premium is received in advance. –

(1) No insurer shall assume any risk in India in respect of any insurance business on which premium is not ordinarily payable outside India unless “and until the premium payable is received by him or is guaranteed to be paid by such person in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed or unless and until deposit of such amount as may be prescribed, is made in advance in the prescribed manner.

(2) For the purposes of this section, in the case of risks for which premium can be ascertained in advance, the risk may be assumed not earlier than the date on which the premium has been paid in cash or by cheque to the insurer.

Explanation. - Where the premium is tendered by postal money order or cheque sent by post, the risk may be assumed on the date on which the money order is booked or the cheque is posted, as the case may be.

(3) Any refund of premium which may become due to an insured on account of the cancellation of a policy or alteration in its terms and conditions or otherwise shall be paid by the insurer directly to the insured by a crossed or order cheque or by postal money-order and a proper receipt shall be obtained by the insurer from the insured, and such refund shall in no case be credited to the account of the agent.

(4) Where an insurance agent collects a premium on a policy of insurance on behalf of an insurer, he shall deposit with, or despatch by post to, the insurer, the premium so collected in full without deduction of his commission within twenty-four hours of the collections excluding bank and postal holidays.

(5) The Central Government may, by rules, relax the requirements of sub-section (1) in respect of particular categories in insurance policies.

64-VC. Restrictions on the opening or a new place of business. –

(1) No insurer shall, after the commencement of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1968, open a new place of business in India or change otherwise than within the same city, town or village, the location of an existing place of business situated in India without obtaining the prior permission of the Controller.

(2) The Controller may grant permission under sub-section (1) subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose either generally or with reference to any particular case.

(3) Where, in the opinion of the Controller, an insurer has, at any time, failed to comply with any of the conditions imposed on him under this section, the Controller may, “by order in writing and after affording reasonable opportunity to the insurer for showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him, revoke any permission granted under this section.

Explanation. -For the purposes of this section, “place of business” includes a branch, sub-branch, inspectorate, Organisation office and any other office, by whatever name called.]

¹[87-A. Amalgamation and transfer of insurance business. –

(1) The insurance business of a provident society may be transferred to any person or transferred to or amalgamated with the insurance business of any other provident

Society in accordance with a scheme prepared under this section and sanctioned by the ¹[Controller].

(2) Any scheme prepared under this section shall set out the agreement under which the transfer or amalgamation is proposed to be effected, and shall contain such further provisions as may be necessary for giving effect to the scheme.

(3) Before an application is made to the ¹[Controller] to sanction any such scheme, notice of the intention to make the application together with a statement of the nature of the amalgamation or transfer, as the case may be, and of the reason therefor, shall at least two months before the application is made, be sent to the ¹[Controller] and certified copies, four in number, of each of the following documents shall be, furnished to him, and other such copies shall during the two months aforesaid be kept open for the inspection of the members and policy-holders at the principal and branch offices of the provident societies concerned, namely :

- (a) A draft of the agreement or deed under which it is proposed to effect the amalgamation or transfer,
- (b) Balance-sheets in respect of the insurance business of each of the provident societies concerned in such amalgamation or transfer,
- (c) Actuarial reports and abstracts in respect of the insurance business of each of the provident societies so concerned,
- (d) A report on the proposed amalgamation or transfer, prepared by an independent actuary,
- (e) Any other reports on which the scheme of amalgamation or transfer was founded;

And the balance-sheets, reports and abstracts referred to in Cl. (b), (c) and (d) shall all be prepared as at the date at which the amalgamation or transfer if sanctioned by the ¹[Controller] is to take effect, which date shall not be more than twelve months before the date on which the application to the ¹[Controller] is made under this section:

Provided that the 1[Controller] may exempt the provident society or societies concerned from furnishing to him and from keeping open for inspection any one or more of the above documents.

(4) When any application such as is referred to in sub-section (3) is made to the 1[Controller], he may require, if for special reasons he so directs, notice of the application to be sent to every person resident 2[in India] who is the holder of a policy of any provident society concerned and may cause a statement of the nature and terms of the amalgamation or transfer, as the case may be, to be published in such manner and for such periods as he may direct, and after hearing the societies concerned, such policy-holders as apply to be heard and such other persons as he may deem fit, may sanction the arrangement, if he is satisfied that no sufficient objection to the arrangement has been established and shall make such consequential orders as are necessary to give effect to the arrangement, including orders as to the disposal of any de sit made under Sec. 73:

Provided that-

(a) No part of deposit made by any party to the amalgamation or transfer shall be returned except where, after effect is given to the arrangement the whole of the deposit to be made by the provident society carrying on the amalgamated business or the person to whom the business is transferred is completed;

(b) Only so much shall be returned as is no longer required to complete the deposit last mentioned in Cl. (a);

(c) While the deposit last mentioned in Cl. (a) remains uncompleted, no accession, resulting from the arrangement, to the amount already deposited by the provident society carrying on the amalgamated business or the person to whom the business is transferred shall be appropriated as payment or part payment of any instalment of deposit subsequently due from it or him under Sec. 73.

(5) A copy of the order, under sub-section (4) sanctioning or refusing to sanction the arrangement shall be sent to each of the societies concerned and to each of the policyholders who applied to be heard.

(6) If the scheme involves a reduction of the amount of the insurance and other contracts of “the transfer or society or of any or all of the societies concerned in the amalgamation, the 2[Controller] may sanction the scheme, reducing the amount of such contracts upon such terms and subject to such conditions as he may think proper, and the reduction of the contracts as sanctioned by the 2[Controller] shall be valid and binding on all the parties concerned.]

1. Ins. by Act 6 of 1946, Sec. 38 (w.e.f. 20th March, 1946).

2. Subs by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 4, for the words “Superintendent of Insurance” (w.e.f. 1st June, 1950).

3. Subs by the A. 0. 1950, for the words “in the Provinces or in an Indian State”.

88. Winding up by Court and voluntary winding up. -

(1) The Court may order the winding up of a provident society being a company incorporated under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913), 2[or under the Indian Companies Act, 1882, (6 of 1882) or under the Indian Companies Act, 1866 (10 of 1866), or under any Act repealed thereby] and the provisions of 3[the Indian Companies Act, 1913] 4 shall, subject to the provisions of this Part, apply accordingly.

⁵[(2) In addition to the grounds on which an order may be based, the Court may order the winding up of a provident society if the ¹[Controller], who is hereby authorised to do so, applies in this behalf to the Court on any of the following grounds, namely:

- (a) That the registration of the society has been cancelled under subsection (4) of Sec. 70;
- (b) That it appears from the returns furnished under the provisions of this Act or as the result of an inquiry made under Sec. 87 that the society, is insolvent;
- (c) That the continuance of society is prejudicial to interests of the policyholders.

(3) A provident society being a company incorporated under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913) ⁴, ⁶[or under the Indian Companies Act, 1882, (6 of 1882), or under the Indian Companies Act, 1866 (10 of 1866), or under any Act repealed thereby] may be wound up voluntarily in accordance with the provisions of ⁷[the Indian Companies Act, 1913], but shall not be so wound up except for the purpose effecting an amalgamation or re-construction of the society or on the ground that by reason of its liabilities it cannot continue its business.

(4) A provident society not being a company incorporated under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913) or under the Indian Companies Act 1882 (6 of 1882), or under the Indian Companies Act, 1866 (10 of 1866) or under any Act repealed thereby may be wound up voluntarily under this Act if a resolution is passed by the proprietors that the society should be wound up voluntarily for the purposes or on the ground specified in sub-section (3), and the ⁸[Controller] may, in any case where he has ordered the cancellation of the registration of a society under sub-section (4) of Sec. 70, order the winding up of the society under this Act.

- 6. Ins. by Act 13 of 1941, Sec. 49 (w.e.f. 8th April, 1941).
- 7. Subs. by Act 13 of 1941, Sec. 49, for the words “that Act” (w.e.f. 8th April, 1941).
- 8. Subs by act 47 of 1950, Sec. 4, for “Superintendent of Insurance” (w.e.f. 1st June 1950).

89. Reduction of insurance contracts. -The Court may make an order reducing the amount of the insurance contracts of a provident society upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks just-

(a) If the ¹[Controller] as an alternative to cancelling the registration of a society under sub-section (4) of Sec. 70 applies to the Court in this behalf;

(b) If while a society is in liquidation the Court thinks fit;

(c) If when a society has been proved to be insolvent the Court thinks fit to do so in place of making an order for the winding up of the society; or

(d) If the Court is satisfied on an application made in this behalf by the society supported by the report of an actuary, and after giving the policy-holders an opportunity to be heard that it is desirable to do so.

1. Subs by act 47 of 1950, Sec. 4, for “Superintendent of Insurance” (w.e.f. 1st June 1950).

90. Appointment of liquidator. -

(1) Where a provident society is to be wound up whether under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913)², or under this Act, the society shall, within seven days from the date of the order of the Court ordering the winding up of the passing of the resolution authorising the winding up, as the case may be, give notice thereof to the ¹[Controller] shall appoint the liquidator and shall determine the remuneration to be paid to him:

³[Provided that if the ¹[Controller] is not satisfied that the assets of the society are sufficient to meet the costs of liquidation including the remuneration of the liquidator, he may decline to make such appointment, and in such a case the society shall itself appoint a liquidator who shall carry out the liquidation as if the winding up was being done by an order of the Court.]

(2) Any liquidator ⁴[appointed by the ¹[Controller] under sub-section (1)] may be removed by the Controller if satisfied that the duties entrusted to him are not being properly discharged.

Re-insurance

1. Ins. by Act 11 of 1961, Sec. 2 (w.e.f. 1st April 1961)..

101-A. Re-insurance with Indian re-insurers. –

- (1) Every insurer shall reinsure with Indian re-insurers such percentage of the sum assured on each policy as may be specified by the Central Government under sub-section (2).
- (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette,-
 - (a) Specify the percentage of the sum assured on each policy to be reinsured and different percentages may be specified for different classes of insurance:

Provided that no percentage so specified shall exceed thirty percent of the sum assured on such policy; and

(b) Also specify the proportions in which the said percentage shall be allocated among the Indian re-insurers.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an insurer carrying on fire-insurance business in India may, in lieu of re-insuring the percentage specified under sub-section (2) of the sum assured on each policy in respect of such business, re-insure with Indian re-insurers such amount out of the first surplus in respect of that business as he thinks fit, so however that the aggregate amount of the, premiums payable by him on such re-insurance in any year is not less than the said percentage of the premium income (without taking into account premiums on re-insurance ceded or accepted) in respect of such business during that year.

Explanation. -For the purposes of this-section, the year 1961 shall be deemed to mean the period from the 1st April to the 31st December of that year.

(4) A notification under sub--section (2) may also specify the terms and conditions in respect of any business of re-insurance required to be transacted under this section and such terms and conditions shall be binding on Indian re insurers and other insurers.

(5) No notification under sub-section (2) shall be issued except after consultation with the Advisory Committee constituted under Sec. 101-B.

(6) Every notification issued under this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament, as soon as may be, after it is made.

(7) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as preventing an insurer from reinsuring with any Indian re-insurer or other insurer the entire sum assured on any policy or any portion thereof in excess of the percentage specified under sub-section (2).

(8) In this section, -

(i) “Policy” means a policy issued or renewed on or after the 1st day of April, 1961, in -respect of general insurance business transacted in India and does not include a re-insurance policy; and

(ii) “Indian re-insurer” means an insurer specified in sub-clause (b) of Cl. (9) of Sec. 2 who carries on exclusively re-insurance business and is approved in this behalf by the Central Government.

101-B. Advisory Committee. –

(1) The Central Government shall, for language the purposes of Sec. 101-A, constitute an Advisory Committee consisting of not more than five persons having special knowledge and experience of the business of insurance.

(2) The term of office of, and the allowance payable to, members of the Advisory Committee, the procedure to be followed by, and the quorum necessary for the transaction of business of, the Committee and, the manner of filling casual vacancies therein shall be such as may be prescribed]

¹[101-C. Examination of re-insurance treaties. -The Controller may, at any time, -

- (a) Call upon an insurer to submit for his examination at the principal place of business of the insurer in India all re-insurance treaties and other re-insurance contracts entered into by the insurer;
- (b) Examine any officer of the insurer on oath in relation to any such document as is referred to in Cl. (a) above; or
- (c) By notice in writing, require any insurer to supply him with copies of any of the documents referred to in Cl. (a), certified by a principal officer of the insurer.]

¹[106. Power of Court to order restoration of property of insurer or compensation in certain cases. –

(1) If, on the application of the Controller or an Administrator appointed under Sec. 52-A or an insurer or any policy-holder or any member of an insurance company or the liquidator of an insurance company (in the event of the insurance company being in liquidation), the Court is satisfied-

(a) That any insurer (including in any case where the insurer is an insurance company any person who has taken part in the promotion or formation of the insurance company or any past or present director, managing agent, manager, secretary or liquidator) or any officer, employee or agent of the insurer. -

- (i) Has misapplied or retained or become liable or become accountable for any money or property of the insurer; or
- (ii) Has been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the insurer; or

(b) That any person, whether he is or has been in any way connected with the affairs of the insurer or not, is in wrongful possession of any money or property of the insurer or having any such money or property in his possession wrongfully withholds it or has converted it to any use other than that of the insurer; or

(c) That by reason of any contravention of the provisions of this Act, the amount of the life insurance fund has been diminished; the Court may examine any such insurer, director, managing agent, manager, secretary or liquidator or any such other officer, employee or agent of the insurer or such other person, as the case may be, and may compel him to contribute such sums to the assets of the insurer by way of compensation in respect of the misapplication retainer, misfeasance or breach of trust, as the Court thinks fit, or to pay such sum as may be found due from him in respect of any money or property of the insurer for which he is liable or accountable or to restore any money or property of the insurer or any part thereof, as the case may be; and where the amount of the life insurance fund has been diminished by reason of any contravention of the provisions of this Act, the Court shall have power to assess the sum by which the amount of the fund has been diminished and to order the person guilty of such contravention to contribute to the fund the whole or any part of that sum by way of. Compensation; and in any of the aforesaid cases the Court shall have power to order interest to be paid, at such rate and cases the Court shall have power to order interest to be paid at such rate and from such time as the Court may deem fit.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1) or subsection (3), where it is proved that any money or property of an insurer has disappeared or has been lost, the Court shall presume that every person in charge of, or having a disposing power over, such money or property at the relevant time (whether a director, manager, principal officer or any other officer) has become accountable for such money or property within the meaning of sub-clause (i) of Cl. (a) to sub-section (1), and the provisions of that subsection shall apply accordingly, unless such person proves that the money or property has been utilised or disposed of in the ordinary course of the business of the insurer and for the purpose of that business or that he took all reasonable steps to prevent the disappearance or loss of such money or property or otherwise satisfactorily accounts for such disappearance or loss.

(3) Where the insurer is an insurance company and any of the acts referred to in Cls. (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) has been committed by any person, every person who was at the relevant time a director, managing agent, manager, liquidator, secretary or other officer of the insurance company shall, for the purposes of that sub-section, be deemed to be liable for that act in the same manner and to the same extent as the person who has committed the act, unless she proves that the act was committed without his consent or connivance and was not facilitated by any neglect or omission on his part.

(4) Where at any stage of the proceedings against any person under this section (hereinafter referred to as the delinquent), the Court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise-

(a) That a prima facie case has been made out against the delinquent and

(b) That it is just and proper so to do in the interests of the policyholders of an insurer or of the members of an insurance company, the Court may direct the attachment of-

(i) Any property of the insurer in the possession of the delinquent;

(ii) Any property of the delinquent, which belongs to him or is deemed to belong to him with the meaning of sub-section (5);

(iii) Any property transferred by the delinquent within two years before the commencement of proceedings under sub-section (1) or during the pendency. of such proceedings, if the Court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the transfer was otherwise than in good faith and for consideration.

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (4), the following classes of property shall be deemed to belong to a delinquent:

(a) Any property standing in the name of any person which by reason of the person being connected with the delinquent, whether by way of relationship or otherwise, or on account of any other relevant circumstances appears to belong to the delinquent;

(b) The property of a private company in respect of the affairs of which the delinquent, by himself or through his nominees, relatives, partners or persons interested in any shares of the company is able to, exercise or is entitled to acquire control, whether direct or indirect.

Explanation. -For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to be a nominee of a delinquent, if, whether directly or indirectly, he possesses on behalf of the delinquent, or may be required to exercise on the direction or on behalf of the delinquent, any right or power which is of such a nature as to enable the delinquent to exercise or to entitle the delinquent to acquire control over the company's affairs.

(6) Any claim to any property attached under this section or any objection to such attachment shall be made by an application to the Court, and it shall be for the claimant or objector to adduce evidence to show that the property is not liable to attachment under this section, and the Court shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection in a summary manner.

(7) When disposing of an application under subsection (1), the Court shall, after giving all persons who appear to it to be interested in any property attached under this section an opportunity of being heard, make such order as it thinks fit respecting the disposal of any such property for the purpose of effectually enforcing any liability under this section, and all such persons shall be deemed to be parties to the proceedings under this section.

(8) In any proceedings under this section the Court shall have full power and exclusive jurisdiction to decide all questions of any nature whatsoever arising thereunder and, in particular, with respect to any property attached under this section, and no other court shall have jurisdiction to decide any such question in any suit or other legal proceeding.

(9) In making any order with respect to the disposal of the property of any private company referred to in Cl. (b) of sub-section (5), the Court shall have due regard to the interests of all persons interested in such property other than delinquent and persons referred to in that clause.

(10) This section shall apply notwithstanding that the act is one for which the person - concerned may be criminally liable.

(11) In proceedings under this section the Court shall have all the powers which a court has under Sec. 237 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (7 of 1913)²

(12) This section shall apply in respect of a provident society as defined in Part III as it applies in respect of an insurer.

(13) On and from the commencement of the Insurance (Second Amendment) Act, 1955 (54 of 1955), the Court entitled to exercise jurisdiction under this section shall be the High Court within whose jurisdiction the registered office of the insurer is situate (hereinafter referred to as the High Court) and any proceedings under this section pending at such commencement in any Court other than the High Court shall, on such commencement, stand transferred to the High Court.

(14) The High Court may make rules providing for-

(a) The manner in which enquiries and proceedings may be held under this section;

(b) Any other matter for which provision has to be made for enabling the High Court to effectively exercise its jurisdiction under this section.]

1. Subs. by Act 54 of 1955, Sec. 4, for the original section (with retrospective effect).

2. See now the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956)

Declaration of interim bonuses. -Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act an insurer carrying on the business of life insurance shall be at liberty to declare an interim bonus or bonuses to policy-holders whose policies mature for payment by reason of death or otherwise during the inter-valuation period on the recommendation of the investigating actuary made at the last preceding valuation.

113. Acquisition of surrender values by policy. -

1[(1) A policy of life insurance under which the whole of the benefits become payable either on the occurrence, or at a fixed interval or fixed intervals after the occurrence, of a contingency which is bound to happen, shall, if all premiums have been paid for at least three consecutive years in the case of a policy issued by an insurer, or five years in the case of a policy issued by a provident society as defined in Part III, acquire a guaranteed surrender value, to which shall be added the surrender value of any subsisting bonus already attached to the policy, and every such policy issued by insurer shall show the guaranteed surrender value of the policy at the close of each year after the second year of its currency or at the- close of each period of three years throughout the currency of the policy:

Provided that the requirements of this sub-section as to the addition of the surrender value of the bonus attaching to the policy at surrender shall be deemed to have been complied with where the method of calculation of the guaranteed surrender value of the policy makes provision for the surrender value of the bonus attaching to the policy:

Provided further that the requirements of this sub-section as to the showing of the guaranteed surrender value on a policy shall be deemed to have been complied with where the insurer shows, on the policy the guaranteed surrender value of, the policy by means of a formula accepted in this behalf by the ²[Controller] as satisfying the said requirements:

Provided further that the provisions of this sub-section as to the showing of the guaranteed surrender value on a policy shall not take effect until after the expiry of six months from such date³ as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, a policy which has acquired a surrender value shall not lapse by reason of: the non-payment of further premiums but shall be kept alive to the extent of the paid-up sum insured, and the paid-up sum insured shall for the proposes of this sub-section include in full all subsisting revisionary bonuses that have already attached to the policy, and shall, where the policy is one on which the maximum number of annual premiums payable is fixed and the premiums are of uniform amount, before the insured by the policy exclusive of bonuses the same proportion as the total period for which premiums have already been paid bears to the maximum period for which premiums were originally payable.

(3) A policy kept alive to the extent of the paid-up sum insured under subsection (2) shall not be entitled by virtue of that sub-section to participate in any profits, declared distributable after the conversion of the policy into a paid-up policy.]

⁴[(4)] ⁵[Sub-sections (2) and (3) shall not apply]-

⁶[* * * * *]

⁷[(a) Where the paid-up sum insured by a policy being a policy issued by an insurer, is less than one hundred rupees inclusive of any attached bonus, or takes the form of an annuity of less than twenty-five rupees, or where the paid-up sum insured by a policy, being a policy issued by a provident society as defined in Part III, is less than fifty rupees inclusive of any attached bonus or take the form of an annuity of less than twenty-five rupees, or]

⁸[(b)) Where the parties after the default has occurred in the payment of the premium agree in writing to some other arrangement, or

⁹[(c)] To policies in which the surrender value is automatically applied under the terms of the contract to maintaining the policy in force after its lapse through non-payment of premium.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

(See Sec. 11)

Regulation-and Forms for the Preparation of Balance sheet

PART I

Regulations

1. The balance-sheet required to be prepared in respect of every class of business carried on by an insurer is, in the form in which it is set out in Part II of this Schedule (Form A), appropriate to a case where the insurer maintains a separate fund in respect of life-insurance business.
2. The balance sheet of life-insurance business shall be prepared as a separate document. The balance-sheet of any class of business may be prepared as a separate document instead of being incorporated by the addition of columns and headings in the general balance-sheet, but the totals of each such separate balance-sheet (showing the total assets of the class of business, the balance at the credit of the life-insurance fund or other separate fund or account, the amount of shareholders' undivided profits, and outstanding liabilities) must in any case be incorporated in the general balance-sheet.

3. If any combined balance-sheet is for any purpose issued by an insurer, it shall be in accordance with the Form set out in this Schedule, and there shall not be included among the assets shown in any such combined balance sheet any amount in respect of any holding in or advance to any insurer whose assets and liabilities have been incorporated therein. Every combined balance sheet must show clearly on the face thereof that it is a combined balance sheet and must set out fully the name of every insurer whose assets and liabilities have been incorporated therein; if the assets and liabilities of any person not being an insurer are included in a combined balance sheet the fact must be stated thereon.

4. Where any guarantee has been given by an insurer (otherwise than in the ordinary course of re-insurance business) in respect of the policies of any other insurer, the balance sheet of the insurer by whom the guarantee was given must show clearly the name of every insurer whose policies have been so guaranteed and the extent of the guarantee:

Provided that this regulation shall not apply where a combined balance sheet is issued incorporating the assets and liabilities of the insurer whose policies are guaranteed.

5. Where any part of the assets of an insurer is deposited in any place outside ³[India] as security for the owners of policies issued in that place, the balance-sheet shall state that part of the assets has been so deposited, and, if any -such part forms part of life insurance fund, shall show the amount thereof and the place where it is deposited. Where an insurer issues any combined balance sheet for any purpose, the information required by his regulation shall be shown in the aggregate in respect of all the insurers whose assets and liabilities have been incorporated in the balance sheet.

6. There shall be appended to the balance sheet a statement in Form AA as set out in Part II of this Schedule showing the market value and the book value of the assets in India.

7. Every balance sheet shall contain the following certificates, namely:

(a) A certificate signed by the same persons as are required by this Act to sign the balance-sheet explaining how the values as shown in the balance-sheet of the Investments in Stocks and Shares have been arrived at, and how the market value thereof has been ascertained for the purpose of comparison with the values so shown;

(b) A certificate signed by the same persons as are required by this act to sign the balance-sheet and signed also, so far as respects the value of any items shown in the balance-sheet under the heading of "Reversions Life Interests", by an actuary, certifying that the values of all the assets have been reviewed as at the date of the balance-sheet, and that in their belief the assets set forth in the balance-sheet, are shown in the aggregate at amounts not exceeding their realisable or market value under the several headings "Loans", "Reversions and life Interests", "Investments", "Agent's Balances", "Outstanding Premiums", "Interest, Dividends and Rents outstanding", "Interest, Dividends and Rents accruing but not due", "Amounts due from other Persons or Bodies carrying on Insurance Business", "Sundry Debtors", "Bills Receivable", "Cash" and the several items specified under "Other Accounts" :

Provided that if the persons signing the certificated are unable to certify that the assets set forth in the balance-sheet are so shown as aforesaid, a full explanation of the bases upon which the values shown in the balance-sheet have been assessed shall be given in the certificate:

- (c) ¹[Where the balance-sheet relates either wholly in part to life insurance business, a certificate signed by] the same persons as are required by this Act to sign the balance-sheet and by the auditor certifying that no ²[part of the assets] of the life insurance fund has been directly or indirectly applied in contravention of the provisions of this Act relating to the application and investment of life insurance funds; and
- (d) Certificate signed by the auditor (which shall be in addition to any other certificate or report which he is required by law to give with respect to the balance-sheet) certifying-
- (i) That he has verified the cash balances and the securities relating to the insurer's loans, reversions and life interests, and investments;
- (ii) To what extent, if any, he has verified the investments and transactions relating to any trusts undertaken by the insurer as trustee; and
- (iii) In the case of a combined balance sheet, that he has audited the balance sheet and accounts of every insurer whose assets and liabilities are incorporated therein, or that any such balance sheet and accounts, which have not been audited by him, have been certified by independent auditors. The said certificate shall contain a reference to such reservation, if any, as may have been made by any auditor upon any report or certificate given by him with respect to the balance sheet and accounts of any insurer whose assets and liabilities are incorporated in the combined balance sheet.

8. If the values shown in the balance-sheet in respect of "Holdings in Subsidiary Companies" or "House property (i) in India (ii) out of India" have been increased since the last previous balance-sheet, the certificate required by paragraph (b) of the last foregoing Regulation shall state the amount of every increase not solely due to the cost of subsequent additions or, as respects holdings in controlled companies, to increased profits, and shall contain an explanation of the reason therefor.

9. For the purposes of this Schedule the following expressions have meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, namely:

- (a) "Combined balance-sheet" includes any combined statement made by an insurer of assets and liabilities in the form of a balance-sheet which includes the assets and liabilities of any other-insurer; and
- (b) "Marked-value" means as respects any asset the marked value thereof as ascertained from published marked quotations, or, if there be no such value, its fair value as between a willing buyer and a willing seller.

1. Subs. by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 63, for the words "a certificate signed by" (w.e.f. 1st June, 1950).

2 Subs. by ibid, for the words "parts of the assets".

3. Subs by Act 62 of 1956, Sec. 2 and Schedule, for the words "the States" (w.e.f. 1st November), 1956

THE THIRD SCHEDULE

(See Sec. 11)

Regulations and Forms for the Preparations of Revenue Accounts

PART I

Regulations

1. Form D is, as set out in Part II of this Schedule, appropriate for life insurance business, but a separate revenue account must be prepared for every class ¹[or sub-class] of business in respect of which the insurer is required to maintain a separate account.
2. Form F is, as set out in Part II of this Schedule, appropriate for fire insurance ²[and for marine insurance] business. A separate revenue account in the same form must be prepared for ³[] miscellaneous insurance ¹[exclusive of any subclass of such business in respect of which the insurer is required to maintain a separate account]. ⁴[* * ] ⁵[ * *].

3. If any combined revenue account is for any purpose issued by an insurer it must be in accordance with the forms specified in this Schedule and must clearly shown on the face thereof that it is a combined revenue account, and must set out fully the name of every insurer required to make separate returns under this Act whose revenue and expenditure have been included therein; if the revenue and expenditure of any person not being an insurer are included in a combined revenue account, the fact must be stated thereon.

4. The items on the income side of the revenue account must relate to income whether actually received or not, and the items on the expenditure side must relate to expenditure whether actually paid or not.

(b) If in any year the claims actually paid and those still unpaid at the end of that year in respect of the previous year or years are in excess of the amount included in the previous year’s revenue account as provision for outstanding claims, then the amount of such excess must be shown in the revenue account.

(c) If any sum has been deducted from this item and entered on the assets side of the balance sheet the amount so deducted must be shown separately.

(d) Where the account is furnished under the provisions of Sec. 11 of the Insurance Act, 1938, separate figures for claims paid to claimants in ²[* * ] India and Claimants outside ²[ * ] India, and for premiums derived from business effected in India and effected outside ²[ * *] India must be given.

(e) All the amounts received by the insurer directly or indirectly whether from his head office or from any other source outside ²[* * *] India shall also be shown separately in the revenue Account except such sums as properly appertain to the capital account.

Where the account is furnished under the provisions of C. (b) of sub-section (2) of Sec. 16 of the Insurance Act, 1938, by an insurer to whom that section applies, separate, figures for business ²[* ] India and business Out Of ²[ * *] India must be given against the items marked with an asterisk. Against all other items the total amount for the business as a whole may be given.

1. Subs. by Act 62 of 1986, Sec. 39 (w.e.f. 1st June 1969).
2. The word “British” omitted by Act 11 of 1939, Sec. 36.

THE FOURTH SCHEDULE

(See Sec. 13)

Regulations for the preparations of abstracts of actuaries’ Reports and requirements applicable to such abstracts

PART I Regulations

1. Abstracts and Statements must be so arranged that the numbers and letters of the paragraphs correspond with those of the paragraphs of Part II of this Schedule.
2. In showing the proportion which that part of the annual premiums reserved as a provision for future expenses and profits bears to the total of the annual premiums, in accordance with the requirements of ¹[paragraph 4] of Part II of this Schedule, no credits is to be taken for any adjustments made in order to secure that no policy is treated as an asset.
 - (1) The average rate of interest yielded in any year by the assets constituting a life insurance fund shall, for the purposes of ²[paragraph 5] of Part II of this Schedule, be calculated by dividing the interest of the year by the mean fund of the year; and for the purposes of any such calculation the interest of the year shall be taken to be the whole of the interest credited to life insurance fund during the year after deduction of income-tax charged thereon (any refund of income-tax in respect of expenses of management made during the year being taken into account), and the mean fund of the year shall be ascertained by adding a sum equal to one-half of the amount of the life insurance fund at the beginning of the year to a sum equal to one-half of that fund at the end of the year, and deducting from the aggregate of those two sums an amount equal to one-half to the interest of the year.
 - (2) For the purposes of the calculation aforesaid either-

- (a) All profits and income arising during the year from sums invested in reversions shall be included in the interest credited to the life insurance fund during the year; or
- (b) Such portion of life insurance fund as is invested in the purchase of reversions, and the profits and income arising therefrom shall be excluded from the calculation; but in that case a statement must be added to the information required under the said ²[paragraph 5], showing in respect of the portion of the fund so excluded as aforesaid, the average rate of annual profit and income for which credit has been taken during the five years last preceding the valuation date, and explaining the manner in which the said average rate has been calculated.
- (3) The information given in accordance with the requirements of the said ²[paragraph 5] shall show clearly by which of the methods hereinbefore in this regulation mentioned the sums invested in reversion and the profits and income arising therefrom have been dealt with.
- (4) Every abstract prepared in accordance with the requirements of Part II of this Schedule shall be signed by an actuary and shall contain a certificate by him to the effect that he has satisfied himself as to the accuracy of the valuation made for the purposes thereof and of the valuation date:

Provided that in the case of an abstract prepared, on behalf of ³[an insurer], if the actuary who signs the abstract is not a permanent officer of ⁴[the insurer], the certificate as to the curacy of the valuation date shall be given and signed by the principal officer of ⁴[the insurer] and the actuary shall include in the abstract a statement signed by him showing what precautions he has taken to ensure the accuracy of the data:

- (5) For the purposes of this Schedule the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, namely:

“Extra-premium” means a charge for any risk not provided for in the minimum contract premium;

“Inter-valuation period” means, as respects any valuation, the period to the valuation date of that valuation from the valuation date of the last preceding valuation in connection with which an abstract was prepared under this Act or under the enactments repealed by this Act, or, in a case where no such valuation has been made in respect of the class of business in question, from the date on which the insurer began to carry on that class of business;

“Maturity date” means the fixed date on which any benefit will become payable either absolutely or contingently;

“Net premiums” means as respects any valuation the premiums taken credit for in the valuation;

“Premium term” means the period during which premiums are payable;

“Valuation date” means as respects any valuation the date as at which the valuation is made.

- 1. Subs. by Act 11 of 1939, Sec. 37, for the word and figure “paragraph 3”.
- 2. Subs. by Sec. 37, ibid, for “paragraph 4”.

3. Subs. by Act 11 of 1939, Sec. 37, for the words “an insurance company”.
4. Subs. by Sec. 37, ibid, for the words “the company”.

PART II

THE FIFTH SCHEDULE

(See Sec. 13)

Regulations for preparing statements of business in force and requirements applicable to such statements

PART I

Regulations

1. Statements prepared under this Schedule must be prepared, so far as practicable in tabular form and must be identified by numbers and feters corresponding with those of the paragraphs of Part II of this Schedule.
2. Except with respect to rates of premium or contribution, items in statements prepared under this Schedule are to be shown to the nearest rupee.
3. Extra premium shown in the Forms of Summary and Valuation prepared under the Fourth Schedule to this Act must not be included in statements prepared under this Schedule.
4. Every statement prepared under this Schedule shall be signed by the actuary making the investigation in connection with which it is prepared.
5. For the purposes of this Schedule the following expressions have the meaning hereby respectively assigned to them, namely:
 - (a) “Annual loading means the provision made for future expenses and profits;
 - (b) “Extra premiums” means a charge for any risk not provided for in the minimum contract premium;
 - (c) “Net premiums” means the premiums taken credit for in the valuation in connection with which any statement is prepared; and
 - (d) “Valuation date” means as respects any valuation the date as at which the valuation is made.

PART II

Requirements for statements applicable to Life Insurance Business

The statements required to be prepared under this Part of this Schedule are as follows, namely:

1. Statements separately prepared in respect of policies with and without participation in profits, showing-
 - (a) As respects policies for the whole term of life, the rates of office premiums charged, in accordance with the published tables in use, for new policies giving the rates for decennial ages at entry from 20 to 70 inclusive; and
 - (b) As respect endowment insurance policies, the rate of office premiums charged, in accordance with the published tables in use, for new policies with original terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, thirty and forty years, given the rates for decennial ages at entry from 20 to 40 inclusive, but excluding policies under which the age at maturity exceeds 60.
2. Statements, separately prepared in respect of policies; with immediate profits, with deferred profits, with profits under discounted bonus system, and without profits, showing in quinquennial groups-
 - (a) As respects policies for the whole terms of life-
 - (i) The total amount assured (specifying sums assured and reversionary bonuses separately), grouped according to ages attained;
 - (ii) The amount per annum, after deducting abatements made by application of bonus, of office premiums payable throughout life, and of the corresponding net premiums grouped according to ages attained; and
 - (iii) The amount per annum, after deducting abatements made by the application of bonus, of office premiums payable for a limited number of years, and, either, the corresponding net premiums grouped in accordance with the grouping adopted for the purposes of the valuation, or, the annual loading reserved for the remaining duration of the policies, grouped according to ages attained
 - (b) As respects endowment insurance policies-
 - (i) The total amount assured (specifying sums assured and reversionary bonuses separately), grouped in accordance with the grouping adopted for the purposes of the valuation; and
 - (ii) The amount per annum after deducting abatements made by application of bonus, of office premiums payable and of the corresponding net premiums, grouped in accordance with the grouping adopted for the purposes of the valuation:

Provided that-

- (a) As respects endowment insurance polices which will reach maturity in less than five yeas the information required by sub-paragraph (b) (i) of this paragraph must be given for each year instead of in quinquennial groups; and
- (b) Where the office premiums payable under policies for the whole term of life for a limited number of years, or the office premiums payable under endowment insurance policies, or the corresponding net premiums, are grouped for the purposes of the valuation otherwise than according to the number of years payments remaining to be made or where the sums assured under endowment insurance policies are grouped for the purposes of the valuation otherwise than according to the years in which the policies will mature for payment or in which they are assumed to mature if earlier than the true year, then, in any such case the valuation constants and an explanation of the method by which they are calculated must be given for each group, and in the case of the sums assured under endowment insurance policies statement must also be given of the amount assured maturing for payment in each of the two years following the valuation date.

3. Statements as respects any policies in force under which premiums cease to be payable whether permanently or temporarily, during disability arising from sickness or accident, showing the total amount of the office premiums payable.
4. Statements as respects immediate annuities on single lives for the whole term of life, separately prepared in respect of annuities on male and female lives, showing in quinquennial age groups the total amount of such annuities.
5. Statements as respects deferred annuities, separately prepared in respect of annuities on male and female lives, showing the specimen reserve value for annuities of one hundred rupees which will be produced on maturity on the basis of valuation adopted at ages, in the case of male lives, 60 and 65, and in the case of female lives, 55 and 60; the said statements must show the specimen reserve values which will be produced under the table of annual premiums in use for new policies, and if under any other table of annual premiums in use for any other deferred annuity policies in force smaller reserve values will be produced, the like specimens of these must also be given.
6. Statements as respects any policies of insurance upon the lives of a group of persons, whereby sums assured are payable in respect of the several persons included in the group, showing the total claims paid since the date as at which the last statements were prepared under this Part of this Schedule or, where no such statements have been prepared, since the date on which the insurer began to carry on the class of business to which the statements relate, and the reserve for unexpired risks and outstanding claims.

[See Sec. 42-B (1)]

Terms deemed to be included in every contract between an insurer carrying on general insurance business and a principal agent

1. All payments of commission to insurance agents shall be made by the principal agent on behalf of the insurer.
2. The principal agent shall procure or cause to be procured through insurance agent such an amount of general insurance business of any class for the procurement of which he has been appointed, as will yield a gross premium income of not less than twenty thousand rupees in each calendar year.
3. In the event of the principal agent failing in any calendar year to comply with the requirements of Cl. (2), he shall forfeit to the insurer-
 - (i) One-quarter of the total remuneration payable to him by the insurer for that year, if the class of business for the procurement of which he has been appointed is fire or miscellaneous insurance business, or
 - (ii) One-third of the total remuneration payable to him by the insurer for that year, if the class of business for the procurement of which he has been appointed is marine insurance business.
4. In the event of the principal agent failing to comply with the requirements of Cl. (2) in any two successive calendar years, the contract shall, without prejudice to the provisions of Cl. (3), terminate on the 31st day of March immediately following the second calendar year.

5. Except in cases where the business relates to any property under his immediate control, a principal agent shall not by himself procure any class of general insurance business without utilizing the service of an insurance agent.

1. Ins. by Act 47 of 1950, Sec. 65 (w.e.f. 1st September, 1950).

PART B

[See Sec. 42-C (1)]

Terms deemed to be included in every contract between an insurer carrying on life-insurance business and a chief agent

1. All payments of commission to insurance agents shall be made by the insurer direct or by the chief agent, who may make the payment either directly or through a special agent on behalf of the insurer.
2. The chief agent shall employ or cause to be employed for and on behalf of the insurer either directly or through special agents at least six insurance agents in cases where the business in force of the insurer is less than one crore of rupees and in any other case at least twelve agents each of whom will procure in each calendar year new business amounting to not less than ten thousand rupees.
3. Save as provided in respect of cases specified in Cl. (7) of this Part, the remuneration payable to the chief agent in respect of life insurance business effected through him for the insurer shall only be in the form of an overriding commission.
4. In the event of the agent failing in two successive calendar years to comply with the requirements of Cl. (2), he shall forfeit to the insurer one-half of the total remuneration payable to him by the insurer for those years.
5. In the even of the chief agent failing to comply with the requirements of Cl.(2) in four successive calendar years, the contract shall, without prejudice to the provisions of Cl. (4) terminate on the 31st day of March immediately following the last of such calendar years.
6. Not more than one intermediary to be remunerated by the insurer concerned, whether on a salary basis or by way of commission shall be employed between the chief agent and any insurance agent but the chief agent may employ as many persons as he thinks fit on a salary basis, provided such salaries are paid out of his overriding commission.
7. In cases where the commission payable on a policy of life insurance effected through an insurance agent working under a chief agent is stopped on or after the 1st day of January, 1949 and riot paid to the insurance agent an amount not exceeding one quarter of such commission payable to the insurance agent concerned shall also be payable to the chief agent, if he continues to render service in connection with that policy and if such commission is otherwise payable to him.

PART C

[See Sec. 42-C (4)]

Terms deemed to be included in every contract between an insurer carrying on life insurance business and a special agent or between a chief agent and a special agent

CONTENTS

1. All payments of commission to insurance agents shall be made by the insurer direct or, on behalf of the insurer, either by the chief agent under whom the special agent is working or by the special agent.
2. The special agent shall employ at least two insurance agents and shall procure or cause to be procured through insurance agents employed under him in each calendar year new business amounting to not less than fifty thousand rupees assured on which at least the first year's premiums have been paid in full.
3. In the event of the special agent failing in any calendar year to comply with the requirements of Cl. (2), he shall forfeit to the insurer fifty percent of the total remuneration payable to him by the insurer or, as the case may be, by the chief agent, for that year.
4. In the event of the special agent failing to comply with the requirements of Cl. (2) in two successive calendar years, the contract shall without prejudice to the provisions of Cl. (3) of this Part terminate on the 31st day of March immediately following the second calendar year.
5. In the even of the special agent procuring life insurance business without utilizing the service of an insurance agent the special agent shall be entitled only to the commission that is ordinarily payable in respect of business so procured to an insurance agent.
