21. Recovery of bonus due from an employer. -Where any money is due to an employee by way of bonus from his employer under a settlement or an award or agreement, the employee himself or any other person authorised by him in writing in this behalf, or in the case of the death of the employee, his assignee or heirs may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, make an application to the appropriate Government for the recovery of the money due to him, and if the appropriate Government or such authority, as the appropriate Government may specify in this behalf is satisfied that any money is so due, it shall issue a certificate for that amount to the Collector who shall proceed to recover the same in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue:

Provided that every such application shall be made within one year from the date on which the money became due to the employee from the employer:

Provided further that any such application may be entertained after the expiry of the said period of one year, if the appropriate Government is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not making the application within the said period.

Explanation. -In this section and in <sup>1</sup>[Secs. 22, 23, 24, and 25], "employee" includes a person who is entitled to the payment of bonus under this Act but who is no longer in employment.

1. Subs. by Act 66 of 1980, Sec. 12, published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Pt. II, Sec. 1, dated 27th December, 1980 (w.e.f. 21st August, 1980).

22. Reference of dispute under this Act. -Where any dispute arises between an employer and his employees with respect to the bonus payable under this Act or with respect to the application of this Act to an establishment in public sector, then, such dispute shall be deemed to be an industrial dispute within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or of any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State and the provisions of that Act or, as the case may be, such law, shall, save as otherwise expressly provided, apply accordingly.

23. Presumption about accuracy of balance-sheet and profit and loss account of corporations and companies. –

(1) Where, during the course of proceedings before any arbitrator or tribunal under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), or under any corresponding law relating to investigation and settlement of industrial disputes in force in a State (hereinafter in this section and in <sup>1</sup>[Secs. 24 and 25] referred to as the "said authority") to which any dispute of the nature specified in Sec. 22 has been referred, the balance-sheet and the profit and loss account of an employer, being a corporation or a company (other than an banking company), duly audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or by auditors duly qualified to act as auditors of companies under sub-section (1) of Sec. 226 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), are produced before it, then the said authority may presume the statements and particulars contained in such balance-sheet and profit and loss account to be accurate and it shall not be necessary for the corporation or the company to prove the accuracy of such statements and particulars by the filing of an affidavit or by any other mode :

Provided that where the said authority is satisfied that the statements and particulars contained in the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account of the corporation or the company are not accurate, it may take such steps as it thinks necessary to find out the accuracy of such statements and particulars.

(2) When an application is made to the said authority by any trade union being a party to the dispute or where there is no trade union, by the employees being a party to the dispute, requiring any clarification relating to any item in the balance-sheet or the profit and loss account, it may, after satisfying itself that such clarification is necessary, by order, direct the corporation or, as the case may be, the company, to furnish to the trade union or the employees such clarification within such time as may be specified in the direction and the corporation or, as the case may be the company, shall comply with such direction.

(1) Where any dispute of the nature specified in Sec. 22 between an employer, being a banking company, and its employees has been referred to the said authority under that section and during the course of proceedings the accounts of the banking company duly audited are produced before it, the said authority shall not permit any trade union or employees to question the correctness of such accounts, but the trade union or the employees may be permitted to obtain from the banking company such information as is necessary for verifying the amount of bonus due under this Act.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall enable the trade union or the employees to obtain any information, which the banking company is not compelled to furnish under the provisions of Sec. 34-A of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949).]

25. Audit of accounts of employers, not being corporations or companies. -
