1. Subs. by the A.L.O. 1950.

C. MODE OF REGISTRATION

19. Duty of Registrar to register births and deaths of which notice is given. -Every Registrar of Births and Deaths, on receipt of notice of a birth or death within the local area or among the class for which he is appointed, shall, if the notice is given within the prescribed time and in the prescribed mode by a person authorised by this Act to give the notice, forthwith make an entry of the birth or death in the proper register book:

Provided that-

(a) If he has reason to believe the notice to be in any respect false, he may refuse to register the birth or death until he receives an order from the Judge of the District Court directing him to make the entry and prescribing the manner in which the entry is to be made, and

(b) He shall not enter in the register the name of any person as father of an illegitimate child, unless at the request of the mother and of the person acknowledging himself to be the father of the child.

20. Persons authorized to give notice of birth. -Any of the following persons may give notice of a birth, namely:

(a) The father or mother of the child;

(b) Any person present at the birth;

(c) Any person occupying, at the time of the birth, any part of the house wherein the child was born and having knowledge of the child having been born in the house,

(d) Any medical practitioner in attendance after the birth and having personal knowledge of the birth having occurred;

(e) Any person having charge of the child.

21. Persons authorised to give notice of death. -Any of the following persons may give notice of a death, namely:

(a) Any relative of the deceased having knowledge of any of the particulars required to be registered concerning the death;

(b) Any person present, at the death;

(c) Any person occupying, at the time of the death, any part of the house wherein the death occurred and having knowledge of the deceased having died in the house;

(d) Any person in attendance during the last illness of the deceased;

(e) Any person who has seen the body of the deceased after death.

22. Entry of birth or death to be signed by person giving notice. –

(1) When an entry of a birth or death has been made by the Registrar of Births and Deaths under Sec. 19, the person giving notice of the birth or death must sign the entry in the register in the presence of the Registrar:

1[Provided that it shall not be necessary for the person giving notice to attend before the Registrar or to sign the entry in the register if he has given such notice in writing and has furnished to the satisfaction of the Registrar such evidence of his identity as may be required by any rules made by the 2[State Government] in this behalf.]

(2) Until the entry has been so signed 1[or the conditions specified in the proviso to sub-section (1) have been complied with], the birth or death shall not be deemed to be registered under this Act.

(3) When the birth of an illegitimate child is registered, and the mother and the person acknowledging himself to be the father of the child jointly request that that person may be registered as the father, the mother and that person must both sign the entry in the register in the presence of the Registrar.

1. Added by Act 9 of 1911, Sec. 2.

2. Subs. by the A.L.O. 1950.

23. Grant of certificate of registration of birth or death. -The Registrar of Births and Deaths shall, on application made at the time of registering any birth or death by the person giving notice of the birth or death, and on payment by him of the prescribed fee, 1 give to the applicant a certificate in the prescribed form, signed by the Registrar, of having registered the birth or death.

1. Stamps in which such fees are to be paid, vide Gazette of India, 1899, Pt. 1, p. 32, para. 14 (e) of Notification No. 786 S. R.

24. Duty of Registrars as to sending certified copies of entries in register books to Registrar-General. –

(1) Every Registrar of Births and Deaths in 1[the territories to which this Act extends] shall send to the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages for the territories within which the local area or class for which he is appointed is situate or resides, at the prescribed intervals, a true copy certified by him, in the prescribed form, of all the entries of births and deaths in the register book kept by him since the last of those intervals:

Provided that in the case of Registrars of Births and Deaths who are clergymen of the Churches of England, Rome and Scotland, the Registrar may, if so directed by his ecclesiastical superior, send the certified copies in the first instance to that superior, who shall send them to the proper Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

2[(2) * * * * *]

3[* * * * *]

1. Subs. by the A.L. (No. 2) O., 1956, for “Part A States or Part C States”.

2. Sub-section (2) repealed by the A.L.O., 1950

3. The proviso, inserted by Act 38 of 1920, repealed by the A.O., 1937.

25. Searches and copies of entries in register books. -

(1) Every Registrar of Births and Deaths shall, on payment of the prescribed fees, at all reasonable times, allow searches to be made in the register books kept by him and give a copy of any entry in the same.

(2) Every copy of an entry in register book given under this section shall be certified by the Registrar of Births and Deaths and shall be admissible in evidence for the purpose of proving the birth or death to which the entry relates.

26. Exceptional provision for registration of certain births and deaths. -Notwithstanding anything in Sec. 19, the 1[State Government may make rules 2 authorising Registrars of Births and Deaths on conditions and in circumstances to be specified in the rules, to register births and deaths occurring outside the local areas or classes for which they are appointed.

1. Subs. by A.O., 1950

2. Rules made under Sec. 26 conjointly with Secs. 28 and 36, vide Gazette of India, 1888, Pt. 1, p. 336, and different local Rules and Orders. All rules made by Governor-General in Council under this Act before 1911 shall be deemed to be made by the State Government vide, Sec. 6 of Act 9 of 1911.

D. PENALTY FOR FALSE INFORMATION

27. Penalty for wilfully giving false information. -If any person wilfully makes, or causes to be made for the purpose of being inserted in any register of births or deaths, any false statement in connection with any notice of a birth or death under this Act, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

E. CORRECTION OF ERRORS

28. Correction of entry in register of births or deaths. –

(1) If it is proved to the satisfaction of a Registrar of Births and Deaths that any entry of a birth or death in any register kept by him under this Act is erroneous in form or substance, he may, subject to such rules 1 as may be made by the 2[State Government] with respect to the conditions and circumstances on and in which errors may be corrected, correct the error by entry in the margin, without any alteration of the original entry, and shall sign the marginal entry and add thereto the date of the correction.

(2) If a certified copy of the entry has already been sent to the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages, the Registrar of Births and Deaths shall make and send separate certified copy of the original erroneous entry and of the marginal correction therein made.

1. The proviso, inserted by Act 38 of 1920, repealed by the A. O., 1937.
2. Subs. by A.O., 1950.
