

INTRODUCTION

The development of main Panchkula town as conceived in the interim Master Plan of Panchkula is almost at completion stage. In order to cope with the increasing demand of public for planned and developed urban estates, it was decided to develop the area situated across the Ghaggar River. The said urbanisable area situated between river Ghaggar and TBRL boundary is called Panchkula Extension. So, far planned urban development is concerned, a development plan of this area was prepared vide Drawing No. DTP(P) 599/2000 dated 11.08.2000. Later on certain changes have been necessitated, keeping in view the recent decisions taken by the government, which are as follows:

- (a) Earmarking of the land use of 162.44 acres from recreational to industrial in Sector-32 for development of second phase of IT Park.
- (b) Change in land use of Sector-22 from Special Zone to Industrial (IT Park).
- (c) Spot Zoning of land approved for residential licence in favour of M/s Bhoomi Infrastructure Co.
- (d) Spot Zoning of the existing commercial in Sector-27 to residential (Group Housing).

In order to incorporate the above mentioned amendments in the Development Plan, the revised development plan has been prepared vide drawing no. DTP(P) 1127/09 dated 8.09.2009.

2. PHYSIOGRAPHY OF PANCHKULA EXTENSION AND PROPOSALS RELATING THERE TO:

Being located along the Ghaggar River, the area of Panchkula Extension is roughly in irregular linear strip bounded by river Ghaggar in West and the Shivalik foothills in the East. This area forms undulating topography, cliffs at higher terrace and gentle rolling plain at lower terrace along Ghaggar River. Some of the creeks like Nandna Choe and Nadda Choe are passing through sector 22, 23, 24, 25 & 31. Besides, there are certain Nallahs flowing in sectors 25, 26, 27, 28 & 32. The Ghaggar River and its tributaries i.e. Nandna Choe and Nadda Choe have been proposed to be preserved with proper protection bundhs and channelization if any required as such in the Development plan, so that the drainage system of this area may be sustained. The alignments of Nallahs flowing in sectors 25, 26, 27, 28 & 32 may be redefined and channelized if such changes are required for better utilization of this area, at the time of preparation of layout plans of individual sectors, which may also protect human habitation.

The cliffs of higher terrace occurring in sectors 22, 23, 25, 26, 27 & 28 have become part of urbanisable area, would be brought under tolerable gentle slope to the satisfaction of Director, Town and Country Planning, Haryana and this work would be considered part of development of these sectors. However, the cliffs lying along Ghaggar river bank, particularly in sector 22, 23 and 32 would be preserved in such a way so that no land sliding/erosion of said cliffs may take place.

In order to protect the urbanisable area from the flood, a 60 meter road i.e. M2 road has been proposed, which may act as protection bandh for Panchkula Extension from river Ghaggar. Besides some green recreational land may be developed along Ghaggar River bank as well as green belt along the banks of Nandna Choe and Nadda Choe, wherever necessity arises. In sector 23 and 25, Nandna Choe and Nadda Choe are spreading width wise in large areas. Some portions of land of these choes are proposed to be reclaimed to the satisfaction by of Chief Engineer, Drainage, Haryana by realigning the bank of said choes (i.e. by confining the width of said choes to a normal workable width).

3. RESTRICTED BELT AROUND T.B.R.L.

The Govt. of India vide notification no. SRO-99 Dated 3rd May 1994 published on 11th June, 1994 under "The Indian Works of Defence Act, 1903" imposed restrictions upon construction of any

5. CIRCULATION SYSTEM

Since, "Panchkula Extension" area is a part of main Panchkula town, therefore, in addition to existing approach from Panchkula-Barwala road, the Panchkula Extension has also been linked with main Panchkula town through 60 mtrs. wide road i.e. M2 road leading from sector 3/21 to 23/24 through 2nd bridge as conceived in the Development plan. The Panchkula Extension forms a single row of sectors bounded by 60 mtrs. wide roads.
